

SGIR

STANDING GROUP ON INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

sixth

PAN-EUROPEAN International Relations
CONFERENCE

Making Sense of a Pluralist World:
Sixth Pan-European International Relations Conference
Turin, 12-15 September 2007

PRELIMINARY PROGRAMME

Version date: 13 July 2007

ecpr

SESSION 1: THURSDAY, 13 SEPTEMBER 2007, 11-12.45

1-1 After 9/11: Living in a World Risk Society

Approaches to International Relations in an Age of Terror: Places, Spaces and Risks

I ROSINE

- Chair: Yee-Kuang Heng (University of St Andrews)
Paper 1: Living in dangerous times – fear, human rights and social policy post 9/11
David Denney (Royal Holloway, University of London)
Paper 2: The practice of war and the discourse of risk
Mikkel Vedby Rasmussen (Danish Institute for Military Studies)
Paper 3: Security co-operation in the risk society
Michael Williams (Royal United Services Institute)
Discussant: Christopher Coker, LSE

1-2 State, Sovereignty and Territory

Central Concepts in IR: a meta-theoretical conversation

IV ROSINE

- Chair: Jens Bartelson (University of Copenhagen)
Paper 1: 'Sovereign subjectivity'. Discipline and governmentality in the new world order
Tanja E. Aalberts (Leiden University)
Paper 2: The fictional quality of sovereignty
Mechthild Exo (Magdeburg University)
Paper 3: The stuff of International Relations? Process philosophy as meta-theoretical reflection on security, territory and authority
Johannes Stripple (Lund University)
Paper 4: 50 ways to change a concept: current arguments on state and sovereignty
Jörg Meyer (University of Magdeburg)
Discussant: Jens Bartelson (University of Copenhagen)

1-3 Integration and conflict transformation – towards a theoretical framework

Conflict Transformation – European Experience(s)

2 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Thomas Diez (University of Birmingham)
Paper 1: Conflict transformation theory and European practice
Hugh Miall (University of Kent)
Paper 2: Is ethno-nationalism a paper tiger?
Rodolfo Ragoneri (University of Sassari)
Paper 3: The perspective of European integration as a means of conflict transformation: The case of Bosnia and Hercegovina
Thorsten Gromes (University of Marburg)
Paper 4: The impact of Europeanisation on community conflicts: a mapping exercise

Discussant: Elise Feron (Institute d'études politiques de Lille)
AJR Groom (University of Kent)

1-4 Round Table on Critical Approaches to Security in Europe

Critical Approaches to Security in Europe

B PLANA

Chair: Jef Huysmans (The Open University)

Critical approaches to security in Europe: A network manifesto
Stephan Davidshofer (Sciences Po, France), Francesco Ragazzi (Sciences Po, France / Northwestern University), Claudia Aradau (The Open University), Rens van Munster (University of Southern Denmark)

Discussants: Rob Walker (University of Victoria)
Mick Dillon (University of Lancaster)
Mark Salter (University of Ottawa)

1-5 Globalization and Cultural Plurality in IR

Cultural Plurality in IR Theory and IR Practice

6 GIOLITTI

Chair: Zuzana Lehmannová, (University of Economics, Prague)

Paper 1: Imbalance of globalization as a cultural problem

Zuzana Lehmannová (University of Economics, Prague)

Paper 2: Reconciling identities in a human rights framework

Vincent Depaigne (School of Oriental and African Studies)

Paper 3: Visual culture and the question of difference in a pluralist world

Frank Möller (Tampere Peace Research Institute)

Paper 4: Tradition as a modern strategy: Indigenous knowledge and local governance in Nigeria

Geoffrey Nwaka (Abia State University)

Paper 5: The struggle for 'global opinion' in the international media

Tiina Seppälä (University of Lapland)

Discussant: Brian Hurn (Diplomatic Academy of London, University of Westminster and University of Surrey)

1-6 The 'Rule of Law' under Security

Democratic Legitimacy Upheld? On the Politicisation of the Law and the Legalisation of International Politics

4 GIOLITTI

Chair: Nicole Deittelhoff (Peace Research Institute Frankfurt)

Paper 1: Friend or enemy? Rethinking Schmitt's understanding of the relationship between ethics, law and the use of force in International Relations

- Paper 2: David Chandler (University of Westminster)
Commercial law, legal pluralism, and the privatization of governance in the global political economy
Edward S. Cohen (Westminster College)
- Paper 3: Between Thompson and Schmitt: Engaging with the rule of law in (global) political economy
Christopher May (Lancaster University)
- Discussant: Ignacio De La Rasilla del Moral (University Pablo Olavide of Seville)

1-7 Theorising global governance I

Global governance, a critical encounter: depolitisation/repolitisation in theory and practice

1 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Elisabeth De Zutter (University of Maastricht)
- Paper 1: Hegemonic governance
Cornelia Beyer (University of Tübingen)
- Paper 2: Empire and governance: the question of legitimacy
Jacobus Delwaide (Katholieke Universiteit Brussel) and Jörg Kustermans (Katholieke Universiteit Brussel)
- Paper 3: International civil society within the theory of international relations
Lidia Lo Schiavo (University of Messina)
- Discussant: Elisabeth De Zutter (University of Maastricht)

1-8 Framing Global Health

Global Health Challenges in/for International Relations

8 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Carmen Huckel (University of Tübingen)
- Paper 1: Shaping global health? The accumulative nature of the US health complex
Rodney Loepky (York University)
- Paper 2: The international political economy of regenerative medicine: Challenges for / from emerging economies
Amanda Dickens (University of East Anglia, UK) .
- Paper 3: The political economy of global health research
Sandra MacLean & David MacLean (Simon Fraser University)
- Discussant: Ritu Vij (University of Aberdeen)

1-9 Governing the service economy: International standards from a political economy: introduction

Governing the service economy: International standards from a political economy perspective

5 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Andreas Nölke (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam) and Jean-Christophe Graz (Université de Lausanne)

- Paper 1: The Emerging power of services standards in the global political economy
Jean-Christophe Graz (Université de Lausanne) and Eva Hartmann, Marcel Heires, Nafy Niang, Alexandre Sutlian (IEPI, University of Lausanne)
- Paper 2: Service standards: an institutional and regulationist political economy overview
Christian du Tertre (Université Paris Diderot)
- Paper 3: The importance of ignorance: standards, UNCertainty and the problem of non-knowledge
Oliver Kessler (University of Bielefeld)
- Paper 4: Governance and standards in the service economy: a survey of the knowledge sector
James Perry (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam)
- Discussant: Rodney Bruce Hall (Oxford University)

1-10 Development and the Third World Theoretical Insights

IPE, Developing Countries, and Development

9 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Jørgen Dige Pedersen (University of Aarhus)
- Paper 1: The global/local nexus in local development strategies in developing countries
Dansero Egidio (University of Turin), Scarpocchi Cristina (Università Autonoma della Valle d'Aosta), and Elisa Bignante (University of Turin)
- Paper 2: Do the globalization theorists rephrase and reword the central concepts of the Dependency School? Development discourse of the Globalists and Dependency theorists Dhammika Herath (Göteborg University),
- Paper 3: Transformation or preservation? The nature of capitalism in post-Apartheid Southern Africa
Stefan Andreasson (Queen's University Belfast),
- Paper 4: International development and the politics of well-being
J. Allister McGregor (University of Bath)
- Discussant: Jørgen Dige Pedersen (University of Aarhus)

1-11 Regime Type and International Conflict

Liberalism and Peace

F PLANA

- Chair: Erik Gartzke (Columbia University)
- Paper 1: Disputes, democracies, and dependencies,
Michael Ward / Randolph Siverson (UC Davis),
- Paper 2: The applicability of the Democratic Peace to territorial changes?
Jaroslav Tir (University of Georgia) and Douglas Gibler (University of Alabama)

- Paper 3: Take your time, take your space: Liberalism, democracy, and peace
Andrea Ruggeri (University of Essex),
Discussant: Erik Gartzke (Columbia University)

1-12 The European Union and Transatlantic Relations

Post-Modern Foreign and Security Policy in the Enlarged Europe
A PLANA

- Chair: Michael Smith (Loughborough University)
Paper 1: Who securitized what, when, and how? A comparative analysis of eight
EU member states in the Iraq crisis
Bernhard Stahl (Prota Mateja Nenadovic College)
Paper 2: European and American approaches to security and development
Sergio Fabbrini and Daniela Sicurelli (University of Trento)
Paper 3: The European Union and the United States: an exceptional experiment contends with American exceptionalism
Andrew Ross (University of New Mexico)
Paper 4: Rivalry among institutions. EU-NATO relations revisited
Rafael Biermann (US Naval Postgraduate School)
Discussant: Kristin M. Haugevik (Norwegian Institute of International Affairs).

1-13 Pragmatism and the Discipline

Pragmatism and International Relations
7 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Patrick Thaddeus Jackson (American University)
Paper 1: Autoethnographic IR: exploring the self as a source of research
Roland Bleiker and Morgan Brigg (University of Queensland)
Paper 2: On acting and knowing
Jörg Friedrichs and Friedrich Kratochwil (European University Institute)
Paper 3: A pragmatist approach to theory choice and scientific explanation in
IR. Graham Allison's account of the Cuban Missile Crisis reconsidered Rogier De Langhe, Erik Weber and Jeroen Van Bouwel (University of Gent)
Paper 4: International Relations as a rhetorical discipline: towards (re)newing horizons
Markus Kornprobst (University of Oxford)
Discussant: Patrick Thaddeus Jackson (American University)

1-14 Soft power and international relations theory

Religion, soft power and international relations
L PLANA

- Chair: Jeff Haynes (London Metropolitan University)
Paper 1: Religion, soft power and international relations

- Paper 2: Jeff Haynes (London Metropolitan University)
How soft power when it embodies peaceful, spiritual, cultural values takes precedence over hard power on a long-term basis for the prospect of peace
- Paper 3: Helene Cristini (International University of Monaco)
Political survival and domestic religious influence
- Paper 4: Todd Kent (Texas A&M University-Qatar)
Towards a de-secularised transnational civil society? Transnational religious actors and international political theory'
- Discussant: Giorgio Shani (Ritsumeikan University)
Mohammad Nafissi (London Metropolitan University)

1-15 Contemporary (in)securities: circulation, proliferation, and dissent

Security, Politics, Critique

C PLANA

- Chair: Kyle Grayson (Newcastle University)
- Paper 1: Biopolitics of security in the 21st century
Michael Dillon (Lancaster University)
- Paper 2: "Safe as houses": representation of the family as international security
Matt Davies (Newcastle University)
- Paper 3: Models for homeland defence? The policing of anti-globalisation protests and the ambiguities of resistance
John Gibson (Newcastle University)
- Discussant: Kyle Grayson (Newcastle University)

1-16 Small States and the Concept of Power

Small States in International Affairs

10 GIOLITTI

- Chairs: Nicola Smith and Donna Lee
- Paper 1: Introduction: resetting the agenda for theorising small states
Nicola Smith and Donna Lee (University of Birmingham)
- Paper 2: Pros and cons with small state analysis - Swedish international environmental engagement illustrating the use of a small state
Matilda Broman (Lund University)
- Paper 3: The foreign policy potential of small state information strategies
Alan Chong (National University of Singapore)
- Paper 4: The military and small states: the role of hard power in Singapore's domestic and foreign policy
Bilveer Singh (National University of Singapore)

1-17 Indefensible or Indispensable? Normative debates around Sovereignty (1)

Sovereignty and Agency

N PLANA

- Chair: James Heartfield (University of Westminster)

- Paper 1: Sovereignty as responsibility: a critique
Philip Cunliffe (King's College London)
- Paper 2: Sovereignty and territoriality: The plight of presentism in contemporary Social Science
Sylvia Lechner (University of Wales, Aberystwyth)
- Paper 3: Nuff SAID - the anarchist critique
Alex Pritchard (Loughborough University)
- Paper 4: Resurrecting the Leviathan: ultimate authority and political theory in the constitutional conflicts of the European polity
Cormac Mac Amhlaigh (European University Institute)
- Discussant: James Heartfield (University of Westminster)

1-18 Alternative conceptions of state strength

The role of state capacity for development and peace

E PLANA

- Chair: Kristian Gleditsch (University of Essex)
- Paper 1: UN peacekeeping and local governance
Han Dorussen (University of Essex) & Ismene Gizelis (University of Kent)
- Paper 2: Space-time analysis of violent events in insurgency and civil war
David Meyer and Arthur Stein (University of California, San Diego)
- Paper 3: Crisis Stability and Capacity for Coercion
Branislav Slantchev (University of California, San Diego)
- Paper 4: Theorizing the success and failure of the modern state: constitutive and infrastructural capacities
Claudiu Craciun (National Political Studies and Administration)
- Discussant: Håvard Hegre (PRIO / University of Oslo)

1-19 Critical Reflections on the Theoretical Foundations of IR Theory and Area Studies

The contribution of Regional and Area Studies to IR Theory

II ROSINE

- Chair: Jürgen Haacke (London School of Economics)
- Paper 1: Regions, areas, and exceptions: IR and the Hermeneutics of context
Felix Ciută (UCL School of Slavonic and East European Studies)
- Paper 2: Sociolinguistic competence, discourse analysis and Area Studies
Dirk Nabers (German Institute for Global and Area Studies)
- Paper 3: No way out into the real world? IR, Area Studies and the constructivist turn Stefanie Ortmann (London School of Economics)
- Paper 4: Taking universalism seriously: the Middle East as a bonanza for rational choice
Martin Beck (German Institute for Middle East Studies, German Institute of Global and Area Studies)
- Discussant: Julie Gilson (University of Birmingham)

1-20 Historical Perspective on International Security

The English School Approach to International Relations

III ROSINE

- Chair: Yale Ferguson (Rutgers)
- Paper 1: The Spanish School as the forerunner to the English School
Nicolas Lewkowicz (Nottingham University)
- Paper 2: Epochal change, historical demarcation, and the quest for world order
Sasson Sofer (Hebrew University of Jerusalem)
- Paper 3: A Central-Eastern European international society
Peter Marton (Corvinus University of Budapest)
- Discussant: Richard Little (University of Bristol)

1-21 International Peacemaking and Peacekeeping Experiences: What Relevance for the Middle East?

The Place of the Middle East in International Relations: Making Sense of Global Interconnection and Local Dynamics in Middle East Politics

G PLANA

- Chair: Raffaella A. Del Sarto (European University Institute, Florence)
- Paper 1: The EU, the US and the Middle East: the 'uneasy triangle' and peace making Federica Bicchì (London School of Economics)
- Paper 2: International intervention as a tool for conflict management in the Israeli-Palestinian conflict
Joel Peters (Virginia Tech and Ben Gurion University)
- Paper 3: The Palestinian-Israeli conflict and future scenarios for Palestine state and society
Rami Nasrallah (International Peace and Cooperation Centre Jerusalem)
- Paper 4: A more active EU in the Middle East
Sven Biscop (Royal Institute for International Relations Brussels)
- Discussant: Christopher Hill (University of Cambridge)

1-22 UN and World Security

The UN is the globalized international system

3 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Dimitris Bourantonis (Athens University of Economics and Business)
- Paper 1: The reform and efficiency of the UN Security Council: a veto players analysis
Aris Alexopoulos (University of Crete) and Dimitris Bourantonis (University of Athens)
- Paper 2: The Security Council and the use of military force: an examination of five basic criteria of legitimacy
John Lango (Hunter College)

- Paper 3: "Security, Development and Human Rights": an integrated approach at the UN ?
Corrado Scognamillo (Political Institute of Lyon)
Discussant: Christopher Jones (Brigham Young University)

1-23 Cooperation and Conflict in Transatlantic Relations

Towards a post-western west?

H PLANA

- Chair: Christopher Browning (Keele University)
Paper 1: NATO and the changing nature of the transatlantic security community
Bjorn Olav Knutsen (Norwegian Defence Research Establishment)
Paper 2: The evolution of NATO's partnership strategy – democratic peace or clash of civilizations?
Holger Molder (University of Tartu/ Ministry of Defence, Estonia)
Discussant: Rainer Bauman (University of Bremen)

1-24 What is Historical Sociology and What is it to IR?

Historical Sociology

P PLANA

- Chair: Jennifer Sterling-Folker (Connecticut)
Paper 1: The fourth wave in Historical Sociology – lessons from and for IR
John Hobson (Sheffield) and George Lawson (Goldsmiths)
Paper 2: Historical Sociology should not become a subfield in IR
Martin Hall (Lund)
Paper 3: Historical Sociology of International Relations
Daniel Nexon (Georgetown)
Discussant: Jennifer Sterling-Folker (Connecticut)

1-25 Conceptual Reflections on 'Post-Westphalian' Order

Violence beyond the State

M PLANA

- Chair: Fabio Armao (University of Turin)
Paper 1: Transnational politics and civil conflict
Jeff Checkel (University of Oslo)
Paper 2: Violence after the state? The collapse of the Westphalian order and Carl Schmitt's notion of a "global civil war"
Louiza Odysseos (University of Sussex)
Paper 3: Asymmetrical warfare or post-Westphalian warfare: War beyond the state
Stefano Ruzza (Centro di Ricerca e Documentazione Luigi Einaudi)
Discussant: Francesco Tuccari (University of Turin)

SESSION 2: THURSDAY, 13 SEPTEMBER 2007, 13.45-15.30

2-1 'Fighting words': Discourses of war and terror after 9/11

Approaches to International Relations in an Age of Terror: Places, Spaces and Risks

I ROSINE

- Chair: Alex Danchev (University of Nottingham)
- Paper 1: 'In search of monsters to destroy' – power, knowledge & understanding in US foreign policy after 9/11
Ken McDonagh (Trinity College Dublin)
- Paper 2: The rhetoric of war – Russian and American discourse in the war on terrorism
Greg Simons (Crismart)
- Paper 3: Identity and policy in the US war in Iraq: a constructivist analysis
Karl Schonberg (St Lawrence University)
- Discussant: Alex Danchev (University of Nottingham)

2-2 Politics, Power and Social Action

Central Concepts in IR: a meta-theoretical conversation

IV ROSINE

- Chair: Nicholas Onuf (Florida International University)
- Paper 1: Unity in diversity? 'Power' in world politics
Felix Berenkoetter (LSE)
- Paper 2: The three contexts of power Analysis in IR
Stefano Guzzini (Uppsala University)
- Paper 3: The international, the humanitarian and the political Paulo Esteves (Pontificia Universidade Católica de Minas gerais)
- Paper 4: Power, norms and social sanction: identifying 'practical norms' in global politics
David Ambrosetti (Centre d'études et de recherches internationales de l'Université de Montréal)
- Discussant: Nicholas Onuf (Florida International University)

2-3 The framing of conflict and intervention

Conflict Transformation – European Experience(s)

2 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Marta Martinelli (Université Libre Bruxelles)
- Paper 1: The transformation of military force and the Italian "Peace Support" political rhetoric and the protection of means and personnel
Fabrizio Coticchia (Lucca Institute for Advanced Studies)
- Paper 2: Power beyond conditionality
Jakob Skovgaard (European University Institute)
- Paper 3: Framing law and order in Kosovo: peace operations and the role of discursive framing in conflict transformation
Till Blume (University of Konstanz)

- Paper 4: Reconciling the irreconcilable? Considering the role of identity construction in Turkey's position towards the Cyprus issue
Özlem Demirta-Bagdonas (Fatih University)
- Discussant: Marta Martinelli (Université Libre Bruxelles)

2-4 Contemporary insecurities and the politics of exception

Critical Approaches to Security in Europe

B PLANA

- Chair: Vivienne Jabri (King's College London)
- Paper 1: Forget equality: the dilemma of security and liberty in the "war on terror"
Claudia Aradau (The Open University)
- Paper 2: The war on terror as liberal governance: the camp
Andreas Behnke (University of Reading)
- Paper 3: Taking exception to the exception. Schmitt, Agamben and liberty-security debates
Jef Huysmans (The Open University)
- Paper 4: Giorgio Agamben and the politics of the exception
Andrew Neal (King's College London)
- Paper 5: We are all exiles: implications of the border as state of exception
Mark Salter (University of Ottawa)
- Discussant: Vivienne Jabri (King's College London)

2-5 Western IR Theories: Their Perception and Transformation in Other Cultures

Cultural Plurality in IR Theory and IR Practice

6 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Marina Lebedeva (Moscow State Institute of International Relations)
- Paper 1: Russian ambiguity towards Western IR theories and IR approaches: the past and the future
Marina Lebedeva (Moscow State Institute of International Relations)
- Paper 2: Reflection of Western IR Theories in Russia
Oleg Barabanov (Moscow State Institute of International Relations)
- Paper 3: The Russian debate on the "Northern Dimension" concept
Dmitri Lanko (St. Petersburg State University)
- Paper 4: Adapting Western IR theory: the case of Ukraine
Volodymyr Dubovyk (Odessa National University)

2-6 Democracy and Peace

Democratic Legitimacy Upheld? On the Politicisation of the Law and the Legalisation of International Politics

4 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Antje Wiener (University of Bath)

- Paper 1: Democratic Peace Theory: an agenda for repressivity or a theory for political progression
Omena Henry-A (University of Benin)
- Paper 2: Law versus politics
Lucie Pospechova (Jan Masaryk Center of International Studies)
- Discussant: David Chandler (University of Westminster)

2-7 Theorising global governance II

Global governance, a critical encounter: depolitisation/repolitisation in theory and practice

1 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Eero Palmujoki (University of Tampere)
- Paper 1: Beyond international relations and comparative politics
Philip Cerny (Rutgers University-Newark)
- Paper 2: Identity and global governance
Elisabeth De Zutter (University of Maastricht)
- Discussant: Eero Palmujoki (University of Tampere)

2-8 The Global Health Conundrum: Balancing Social Justice and Private Profit

Global Health Challenges in/for International Relations

8 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Sonja Bartsch (GIGA German Institute of Global and Area Studies)
- Paper 1: The antibiotic resistance pandemic: finding ethical, sociocultural, and political economic frames to foster change
Kitty Corbett (Simon Fraser University)
- Paper 2: Global intellectual property rights and global public health issues: the battle over the 2001-2005 WTO TRIPs amendment process
Valbona Muzaka (University of Sheffield)
- Paper 3: Transnational norm-building in global health
Wolfgang Hein and Lars Kohlmorgen (German Institute of Global and Area Studies)
- Discussant: Ted Schrecker (University of Ottawa)

2-9 Developing Countries and Globalisation: Issues and Challenges

IPE, Developing Countries, and Development

5 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Eugenia Baroncelli (University of Bologna)
- Paper 1: Intellectual property rights and transitional economies: does IPR compliance improve economic development?
Cynthia Horne (Western Washington University)
- Paper 2: Why did financial liberalization fail to deliver its promises in emerging markets?
Ilke Civelekoglu (University of Virginia)

- Paper 3: Analysis and perspectives of the Chinese influence in Africa: a way out of post-colonialism
Valerie Paone (CCIP&Pantheon-Assas)
- Discussant: Eugenia Baroncelli (University of Bologna)

2-10 The European Union as an External Actor

Post-Modern Foreign and Security Policy in the Enlarged Europe

9 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Brian White (Leicester University and University of Toulouse)
- Paper 1: Bilateral diplomacy in the European Union: towards post-modern patterns?
Brian Hocking (Loughborough University) and Jozef Batora (Austrian Academy of Sciences)
- Paper 2: Effective multilateralism and the ‘European Union as an integrative power’: Strengthening the EU’s International Actorness through NATO-EU-UN inter-organisationalism?
Joachim Koops (University of Kiel)
- Paper 3: The European Union and international organizations”
Knud Erik Jørgensen (Aarhus University) and Sebastian Oberthur (Vrije Universiteit Brussels)
- Paper 4: What is the nature of the EU? Views from the neighbourhood
Vit Benes (Institute of International Relations, Prague)
- Discussant: Sibylle Scheipers (Chatham House)

2-11 Democratic Processes and Foreign Policy

Liberalism and Peace

F PLANA

- Chair: Birger Heldt (Folke Bernadotte Academy Stockholm)
- Paper 1: Justifying the use of force in liberal democracies
Anna Geis/Harald Müller/Niklas Schörnig (Peace Research Institute Frankfurt)
- Paper 2: From democratic to parliamentary peace: the European Parliaments and the Iraq War 2003
Hartwig Hummel/Sandra Dieterich/Stefan Marschall (University of Düsseldorf),
- Paper 3: Is democratic peace strongest among left-liberals?
Matthew Rendall (University of Nottingham),
- Discussant: Birger Heldt (Folke Bernadotte Academy Stockholm)

2-12 External Dimensions of the European Neighbourhood Policy

Post-Modern Foreign and Security Policy in the Enlarged Europe

G PLANA

- Chair: Magnus Ekengren (Swedish National Defence College)

- Paper 1: The changing role of the Commission in foreign policy making towards the European neighbourhood
Heidrun Maurer (Institute for Advanced Studies)
- Paper 2: A foreign policy analysis of the external dimension of the Area of Freedom, Security and Justice
Nicole Wichmann (University of Cambridge)
- Paper 3: The European Neighbourhood Policy: the EU's newest foreign policy instrument?
Ecaterina McDonagh (University of Dublin)
- Paper 4: The EU foreign policy dilemma in the neighbourhood: bilateral or regional approach
Emel Oktay (Clingendael Institute)
- Paper 5: Looking for discursive (in)coherence in the European Union's enlargement debate
Anna Herranz (Autonomous University of Barcelona)
- Discussant: Eiki Berg (University of Tartu)

2-13 'Relativism' Revisited - Method(s), Knowledge(s) and Truth(s)

Pragmatism and International Relations

7 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Markus Kornprobst (University of Oxford)
- Paper 1: Habituality of the Finnish political imaginary on Russia
Anni Kangas (University of Tampere)
- Paper 2: International Relations as "a collection of practical solutions" – a Pragmatist interpretation for the self-image of the discipline
Juha Käpylä and Harri Mikkola (University of Tampere)
- Paper 3: Legitimacy as a transdisciplinary counterfactual in global affairs: does law + ethics + politics = a just Pragmatism or mere politics?
James O'Connor (University of Helsinki)
- Paper 4: Practices, experiments and change in world politics: a Peircean perspective
Ruben Zaiotti (University of Toronto)
- Discussant: Markus Kornprobst (University of Oxford)

2-14 Clash of civilisations?

Religion, soft power and international relations

L PLANA

- Chair: Sara Silvestri (City University and University of Cambridge)
- Paper 1: Countering the 'Clash of Civilizations': intercultural dialogue and faith-based diplomacy versus extremism and security threats
Sara Silvestri (City University and Cambridge University)
- Paper 2: Hardboiled soft power: is there a nation of Islam in Burundian politics?
Geert Castryck (Flemish Peace Institute)
- Paper 3: Civil Islam and its impact on international relations
Reza Simbar (Guilan University)
- Discussant: Claudia Baumgart (Peace Research Institute Frankfurt)

2-15 Power, knowledge, and human (in)security

Security, Politics, Critique

C PLANA

- Chair: Anita Lacey (University of Auckland)
Paper 1: Epistemic security regimes
Thomas Moore (University of Edinburgh)
Paper 2: The danger of human security narratives
Annick T.R. Wibben (University of San Francisco)
Paper 3: The life and times of human security
Kyle Grayson (Newcastle University)
Discussant: Anita Lacey (University of Auckland)

2-16 Small States in the International System

Small States in International Affairs

10 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Donna Lee (University of Birmingham)
Paper 1: Taming Gulliver's power: small states' strategies to punch above their weight in a post-Westphalian world
Filip Ejdus (Centre for Civil-Military Relations, Serbia)
Paper 2: Small states' solidarism" in the international society
Annika Bergman-Rosamond (University of Leicester)
Paper 3: Small states as a threat to international order: the first great debate and beyond
Ee Loong Toh (LSE)
Paper 4: Small states as agenda-setters and law-makers: Belgian and Norwegian roles in developing new norms of warfare
Margarita Petrova (European University Institute)

2-17 Playing Games? Sovereignty and European Unity

Sovereignty and Agency

N PLANA

- Chair: Chris Bickerton (University of Oxford)
Paper 1: Simulating sovereignty: when member states opt out of the EU
Rebecca Adler-Nissen (University of Copenhagen)
Paper 2: Danger of dilution? EU integration, multi-level governance and the concept of sovereignty
Kathrin Birkel (Radboud University, Nijmegen)
Paper 3: Sharing sovereignty: Turkey's sovereignty culture and the EU accession
Ali Tekin (Bilkent University)
Paper 4: Sovereign states and their autonomy: French and German decision-making concerning the agricultural chapter of the Uruguay Round of GATT negotiations

Discussant: Gerry van der Kamp-Alons (Radboud University Nijmegen)
Chris Bickerton (University of Oxford)

2-18 Development and state capacity

The role of state capacity for development and peace

E PLANA

Chair: Nils Petter Gleditsch (NTNU / CSCW, PRIO)
Paper 1: Budgeting for peace?
Hanne Fjelde & Indra de Soysa (NTNU)
Paper 2: State capacity, development, and gender equality
Margit Bussmann (University of Konstanz)
Paper 3: The role of donors in fighting corruption
Christoph Seidler (FU Berlin)
Paper 4: Armed conflict over international rivers: the onset and militarization of river claims
Paul R. Hensel (Florida State University) and Marit Brochmann (University of Oslo and PRIO)
Paper 5: Analytical perspectives on conflict and cooperation
Kyle Beardsley (Emory University)
Discussant: Tobias Hofmann (FU Berlin)

2-19 cancelled.

2-20 International Society, Norms and Global Governance

The English School Approach to International Relations

III ROSINE

Chair: John Williams (Durham)
Paper 1: From international society to world information society
Rex Hughes (Cambridge University)
Paper 2: International society and exclusion: the idea of outlaw states outside the US
Tytti Erasto (University of Tampere)
Paper 3: International society and global governance: neo-liberalism and the problem of global governance
Steven Slaughter (Deakin University)
Discussant: Christian Bundegeard (Graduate Institute of International Studies, Geneva)

2-21 Studying religion and in/security in the Middle East

The Place of the Middle East in International Relations: Making Sense of Global Interconnection and Local Dynamics in Middle East Politics

A PLANA

- Chair: Peter Burgess (PRIO)
- Paper 1: Religion, security and Turkey
Pinar Bilgin (Bilkent University)
- Paper 2: World conflict over religion: secularism as flawed solution
Ole Wæver (University of Copenhagen)
- Paper 3: Post-Orientalism, Islam and securitization in exceptional times
Mustapha Kamal Pasha (University of Aberdeen)
- Paper 4: The EU's approach of the religious factor in its Near Abroad: Turkey and the Arab Mediterranean countries
Eduard Soler i Lecha (CIDOB Foundation) -
- Discussant: Peter Burgess (PRIO)

2-22 UN Charter and Security Council Reform

The UN is the globalized international system

3 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Mario Alessi (Italian UN Association)
- Paper 1: Democracy and legitimacy in Security Council reform
Danilo Souza (Catholic University of Rio de Janeiro)
- Paper 2: When states sound the alarm – alerting the UN Security Council to international crisis
Aletta Mondré (University of Bremen)
- Paper 3: The United Nations: mediating between global social forces
Filippo Artoni (University of London)
- Discussant: Radim Srsen (University of Economics, Prague)

2-23 Problematising Western Democracy Promotion

Towards a Post-Western West?

H PLANA

- Chair: Marko Lehti (Tampere Peace Research Institute)
- Paper 1: European and American democracy promotion as an element of foreign policy – the unexpected divergence
Cristina Barrios (LSE)
- Paper 2: Incompatible 'Wests'? US and European conceptions of global order
Rainer Bauman (University of Bremen)
- Paper 3: The transatlantic trade wars and the future of the West
Lisa Aronsson (LSE)
- Discussant: Pertti Joenniemi (Danish Institute for International Studies)

2-24 The 'Science' of Historical Sociology

Historical Sociology

P PLANA

- Chair: Justin Rosenberg (Sussex)
- Paper 1: Historical Sociology in IR: where's the science? What role for science?

- Paper 2: Simon Curtis and Marjo Koivisto (LSE) Extending the longue dureé: Manuel De Landa and a thousand years of nonlinear history
Colin Wight (Exeter)
- Paper 3: Is a global identity possible? The relevance of big history to self-other relations
Heikki Patomäki (Helsinki)
- Discussant: Justin Rosenberg (Sussex)

2-25 Uncivil Society: Non-State Armed Groups and Violence

Violence beyond the State

M PLANA

- Chair: Anna Caffarena (University of Turin)
- Paper 1: The strategic logic of violence in post-conflict states
Michael Boyle (University of St. Andrews)
- Paper 2: A civil war? Political violence and non-violence in a democratic movement
Nick Henry (Victoria University of Wellington)
- Paper 3: Understanding armed groups and their transformations from war to politics: a collection of insider perspectives Veronique Dudouet (Berghof Research Center for Constructive Conflict Management)
- Discussant: Umberto Gentiloni (University of Teramo)

SESSION 3: THURSDAY, 13 SEPTEMBER 2007, 16.00-17.45

3-1 Terrorism, the Internet & International Relations

Approaches to International Relations in an Age of Terror: Places, Spaces and Risks

I ROSINE

- Chair: Francesco Cavatorta (Dublin City University)
Paper 1: Broadcast yourself: terrorism, reality TV, and the Youtube Generation
Maura Conway (Dublin City University)
Paper 2: Approaching terrorism and counter-terrorism: networks and the Web
Michael Stohl (University of California, Santa Barbara), Cynthia Stohl, (University of California, Santa Barbara)
Paper 3: Islamic radicalisation and the role of the Internet: the case of Bosnia-
Herzegovina
Uros Svete (University of Ljubljana)
Discussant: Giampiero Giacomello (Università di Bologna)

3-2 International System, International Society and World Order

Central Concepts in IR: a meta-theoretical conversation

IV ROSINE

- Chair: R.B.J. Walker (University of Victoria/Keele University) Paper 1: Pivotal middle powers and world order: toward a new understanding of international politics?
Mehmet Ozkan (University of Johannesburg)
Paper 2: The concept of world order
Fabio Fossati (University of Trieste)
Paper 3: The missing structure in structural theories of hegemony, and the contemporary international system
Marco Clementi (University of Pavia)
Paper 4: The Four Dilemmas of world politics
Rodolfo Ragonieri (University of Sassari)
Discussant: R.B.J. Walker (University of Victoria/Keele University)

3-3: The European Union and conflict transformation

Conflict Transformation – European Experience(s)

2 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Till Blume (University of Konstanz)
Paper 1: A stable procedural framework for imposing pecuniary sanctions on states: the EC and beyond
Stine Andersen (European University Institute)
Paper 3: Normative power Europe and conflict transformation
Michelle Pace and Thomas Diez (University of Birmingham)
Paper 4: Causes of conflict in Europe and the EU's capacity to respond
Emel Akcali (Sorbonne)
Discussant: Hugh Miall (University of Kent)

3-4 The ethics and politics of risk and uncertainty

Critical approaches to security in Europe

B PLANA

- Chair: Mick Dillon (University of Lancaster)
- Paper 1: The ethical transformation of risk
J. Peter Burgess (PRIO)
- Paper 2: The changing personality of western security and risk management.
Vanessa Pupavac (University of Nottingham)
- Paper 3: Making liberal security: the ‘evidence-based underwriting’ of life assurance Luis Lobo-Guerrero (Lancaster University)
- Paper 4: Risk, uncertainty, and the security paradox.
Oliver Kessler (University of Bielefeld)
- Discussant: Mick Dillon (University of Lancaster)

3-5 Ethnic and Cultural Diversity: Roots of Conflicts and Prevention

Cultural Plurality in IR Theory and IR Practice

6 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Maria Hadjipavlou (University of Cyprus)
- Paper 1: The Cyprus conflict: root causes and future possibilities for peacebuilding
Maria Hadjipavlou (University of Cyprus)
- Paper 2: “Ethnic interest groups” as actors in international relations: a look at the differing impact of ethnic interest groups on U.S. foreign policy.
Henriette Rytz (German Institute for International and Security Affairs)
- Paper 3: Culture, dignity and empowerment
Milena Beric (Serbia)
- Discussant: Geofry Nwaka (Abia State University)

3-6 Order vs. Justice

Democratic Legitimacy Upheld? On the Politicisation of the Law and the Legalisation of International Politics

4 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Ignacio de la Rasilla del Moral (University Pablo Olavide of Seville)
- Paper 1: Creating a more ‘just’ order – the ICC and the politics of judicial intervention
Andrea Birdsall (University of Edinburgh)
- Paper 2: Reclaiming sovereignty: the right to self-determination confronted to the political Noe Cornago (University of the Basque Country) and Josu de Miguel (University of the Basque Country)
- Paper 3: An inquiry into contemporary international legal democratisation
Ignacio de la Rasilla del Moral (University Pablo Olavide of Seville)

- Paper 4: The scientization of politics and politicization of science in the implementation of international environmental agreements
Mireira Tarradell (FU Berlin)
- Discussant: Sybille Scheipers (Chatham House)

3-7 Spatializing security and securitizing actors

Critical approaches to security in Europe

1 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Claudia Aradau (Open University)
- Paper 1: Space, security, strategy: spatial technology and external spaces
Tugba Basaran (University of Cambridge)
- Paper 2: Geo-coding and risk management: spatializing in security studies
Georgios Kolliarakis (Ludwig-Maximilians University)
- Paper 3: The social construction of the exception: creating transnational space
Holger Stritzel (LSE)
- Paper 4: The concept of security and the EU domestic politics – political actors on stage and how to dissect the plot
Xymena Kurowska (European University Institute)
- Discussant: Claudia Aradau (Open University)

3-8 Global Health Governance: National-Global Dimensions

Global Health Challenges in/for International Relations

8 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Marc Froese (York University)
- Paper 1: Global rationalities and local disasters: reconsidering the role of the state in global public health
Craig Janes (Simon Fraser University)
- Paper 2 : The limits of global social policy: health care in post-recessionary Japan
Ritu Vij (University of Aberdeen)
- Paper 3: Globalization and health: the G8 and prospects for a global health ethic
Ted Schrecker (University of Ottawa)
- Discussant: Rodney Loepky (York University)

3-9 Governing private military companies

Governing the service economy: International standards from a political economy perspective

5 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Anna Leander
- Paper 1: The political economy of international standards in the field of security services
Anna Leander (Copenhagen Business School)

- Paper 2: American PMCs: towards institutionalization?
Kriztian Varga (ELTE University Budapest)
- Paper 3: National and regional regulations of PMCs in Europe
Elke Krahnemann (University of Bristol)
- Paper 4: Standardizing coercion: towards a global commodity?
Christian Olsson (Institut d'Etudes Politiques de Paris)
- Discussant: Yusuke Dan (Tokai University)

3-10 Europe's Normative Power

Post-Modern Foreign and Security Policy in the Enlarged Europe

A PLANA

- Chair: Christopher Hill (Cambridge University)
- Paper 1: Normative Power Europe and the 'case for Goliath': the EU, the US and the pursuit of the 'good world'
Michael Smith (Loughborough University)
- Paper 2: Normative Power Europe – how effective is it? EU–African Union relations in the fields of environmental protection and human rights
Sibylle Scheipers (Chatham House) and Daniela Sicurelli (University of Trento)
- Paper 3: Market imperative meets normative power: human rights and European arms transfer policy
Jennifer Erickson (Cornell University)
- Discussant: Christian Kaunert (University of Salford)

3-11 Democracy and Arms Control

Liberalism and Peace

F PLANA

- Chair: Harald Müller (Peace Research Institute Frankfurt)
- Paper 1: Roles, identities and nuclear weapons - opening the black box of democratic arms control policy
Una Becker/ Harald Muller/Tabea Seidler (Peace Research Institute Frankfurt)
- Paper 2: Kantian dynamics of the liberal peace
Wade Huntley (University of British Columbia)
- Paper 3: Democracy and nuclear arms control: the Indian experience
Pal Sighu, (Geneva Centre for Security Policy)
- Discussant: Keith Krause (Graduate Institute of International Studies, Geneva)

3-12 New Modes of Foreign and Security Governance

Post-Modern Foreign and Security Policy in the Enlarged Europe

9 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Knud Erik Jørgensen (Aarhus University)
- Paper 1: Europeanisation and European foreign policy: the 'third dimension'
Brian White (Leicester University and University of Toulouse)

- Paper 2: Security re-divided: ESDP and JHA are distinct Moritz Weiss and Simon Dalferth (International University Bremen)
- Paper 3: Towards a postmodern European Security and Defence Policy?
Pernille Rieker (Norwegian Institute of International Affairs)
- Discussant: Kjell Engelbrekt (Swedish National Defence College)

3-13 Foreign Policy without Sovereignty? The EU in International Politics

Sovereignty and Agency

7 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Giovanna Bono (Institute for European Studies, VUB)
- Paper 1: Federalism, confederalism and sovereignty: understanding the democracy game in the EU
Andrew Glencross (European University Institute)
- Paper 2: Europe, Russia and the 'non-historic peoples'
James Heartfield (University of Westminster)
- Paper 3: Legitimacy, identity and interest in EU foreign policy
Chris Bickerton (University of Oxford)
- Paper 4: The EU and the post September 11 Security agency: the EU's policies towards Africa
Gorm Rye Olsen (University of Roskilde)
- Discussant: Giovanna Bono (Institute for European Studies, VUB)

3-14 Citizenship in the Middle East between local diversity and international trends

The Place of the Middle East in International Relations: Making Sense of Global Interconnection and Local Dynamics in Middle East Politics

L PLANA

- Chair: Arturo Marzano (University of Pisa)
- Paper 1: Citizenship in Israel: borders, land, and ethnicity
Arturo Marzano (University of Pisa) -
- Paper 2: Demarcating political coalitions: understanding the longevity of Turkey's minority policy through the interplay of global and local dynamics of change v. status quo
Dilek Kurban (Turkish Economic and Social Studies Foundation)
- Paper 3: Citizenship and political reform in Egypt: which role for women?
Erika Conti (IMT Alti Studi Lucca)
- Paper 4: Citizenship in the new Iraqi constitution
Muhammad Almusbeh (Scuola Superiori Sant' Anna)
- Discussant: Raffaella A. Del Sarto (European University Institute, Florence)

3-15 Beyond perception: memory, modulation, and metaphor in the construction of threat

Security, Politics, Critique

C PLANA

- Chair: John Gibson (Newcastle University)
- Paper 1: The logic and constituents of security ideas: emotion, memory, and ideology
Thierry Balzacq (Catholic University of Louvain/University of Namur)
- Paper 2: Audiences and insecurity: how British citizens modulate national and global threats
Ben O’Laughlin (Royal Holloway University of London)
- Paper 3: The tabloid terrorist in the metaphorical making
Rainer Huelse and Alexander Spencer (Ludwig-Maximilians University Munich)
- Discussant: John Gibson (Newcastle University)

3-16 The Political Economy of Small States

Small States in International Affairs

10 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Alan Chong (National University of Singapore)
- Paper 1: Is small beautiful? On the optimal size of (small) nations in an era of globalisation
Pierre Berthaud (LEP II (University of Grenoble II)) and Michaela Bohn-Berthaud (IEP de Grenoble)
- Paper 2: Seeing like the IMF: institutional change in small open economies
Andre Broome (The Australian National University) and Leonard Seabrooke
- Paper 3: Small states and global trade: comparing the foreign trade policies of Austria, New Zealand, Singapore and Switzerland in the WTO Doha Round
Stefan Fritsch (University of Salzburg)
- Paper 4: FAI flows in Bosnia-Herzegovina, Georgia and Moldova
Martine Zerbinato and Gabriele De Nard Luca Martignago (IUIES - Isig, Trieste University)

3-17 Indefensible or Indispensable? Normative debates around Sovereignty (2)

Sovereignty and Agency

N PLANA

- Chair: Philip Cunliffe (King’s College London)
- Paper 1: Contested sovereignty: a critical reading of R2P and the current debates on failed states
Sascha Werthes (University of Duisburg/Essen)
- Paper 2: Internationalism: bringing the state back into progressive international politics
Henry Radice (LSE)

- Paper 3: Slicing up the cake: divisible sovereignty in the pre and post-Westphalian order
Rolf Schwarz and Oliver Jütersonke (Graduate Institute of International Studies)
- Paper 4: Sovereignty for a New American Century
Jean-Francois Drolet (University of Oxford)
- Discussant: Philip Cunliffe (King's College London)

3-18 Geography, environment, and state capacity

The role of state capacity for development and peace

E PLANA

- Chair: Indra de Soysa (NTNU)
- Paper 1: The political economy of state extractive capacity in Sub-Saharan Africa
Cameron Thies (University of Missouri-Columbia)
- Paper 2: Geographical factors in post-conflict reconciliation: a panel study of Macedonia 2003-2005
Halvard Buhaug, Albert Simkus, Kristen Ringdal, and Ola Listhaug (NTNU / CSCW, PRIO)
- Paper 3: Natural disasters and the risk of violent civil conflict
Marjolein Righarts & Philip Nel (University of Otago)
- Paper 4: Russia between transition and globalization
Olga Garanina (University Pierre Mendes France, Grenoble)
- Discussant: Hanne Fjelde (NTNU)

3-19 The African Challenge to IR

The contribution of Regional and Area Studies to IR Theory

II ROSINE

- Chair: Anja Jetschke (University of Freiburg)
- Paper 1: Regions, power, and hegemony – South Africa's role in Southern Africa and the world
(Prys, Miriam, University of Oxford)
- Paper 2: Looking to the periphery: the value-added of “non-core” perspectives
Smith, Karen (University of Stellenbosch)
- Paper 3: Rethinking hegemonic stability theory: some reflections from the regional integration experience in the developing world
Petropoulos, Sotiris (Harokopio University)
- Discussant: Paul D. Williams (George Washington University)

3-20 English School Theory

The English School Approach to International Relations

III ROSINE

- Chair: Charles Jones (University of Cambridge)

- Paper 1: Children's games and sovereign states. Charles Manning's constructivism avant-la-lettre
Tanja E. Aalberts (Leiden University)
- Paper 2: Dichotomies in 'Bull's Work'
Ipek Zeynep Ruacan (Bilkent University)
- Paper 3: Turbulent society: enmity in international politics
Huss Banai (Brown University)
- Discussant: Peter Wilson (London School of Economics and Political Science)

3-21 Western Democracy Promotion towards the Middle East: External Initiatives and Internal Reactions

The Place of the Middle East in International Relations: Making Sense of Global Interconnection and Local Dynamics in Middle East Politics

G PLANA

- Chair: Martin Beck (GIGA Institute of Middle East Studies Hamburg)
- Paper 1: Chances and problems of external democracy promotion in the Middle East
Martin Beck (GIGA Institute of Middle East Studies Hamburg)
- Paper 2: The case of Syria: resistance to efforts at democracy promotion?
Muriel Asseburg (Stiftung Wissenschaft und Politik)
- Paper 3: Strategies of adaptation in the Magrib: Tunisia and Algeria compared Melanie Morisse-Schilbach (University of Dresden)
- Discussant: Andrea Teti (University of Aberdeen)

3-22 UN and Threats to Peace, Terrorism, Responsibility to Protect

The UN is the globalized international system

3 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Omar Hernández (Andres Bello Catholic University – Guayana, Venezuela)
- Paper 1: Terrorism from the perspective of human rights: a challenge for the United Nations
Omar Hernández (Andres Bello Catholic University – Guayana, Venezuela)
- Paper 2: Responding to terrorism as an act of self-defence: UN's contribution to the normative development of the unilateral use of force
Muge Kinacioglu (London School of Economics)
- Paper 3: Smart sanctions and the UN
Francesco Giumelli (University of Florence)
- Discussant: Vit Benes (Institute of International Relations, Prague)

3-23 Russia and The ‘West’

Toward a Post-Western West

H PLANA

- Chair: Marko Lethi (TAPRI)
- Paper 1: EU and Russia: developing common values or projecting Western values onto Russia
Natalia Zaslavskaya (Saint Petersburg State University)
- Paper 2: From engagement to pragmatic confrontation: the political elite’s approach towards the West under Putin
Cristian Collina (University of Turin)
- Paper 3: The present role of Russian regions in international cooperation between Russia and Western countries
Tamara Gella (Oryol State University)
- Discussant: Holger Molder (University of Tartu/ Ministry of Defence, Estonia)

3-24 Historical Sociology and the Postcolonial Challenge

Historical Sociology

P PLANA

- Chair: Ann Tickner (University of Southern California)
- Paper 1: The nation-state as globalization: postcolonial theory and the critique of the nation-state
Sanjay Seth (Goldsmiths)
- Paper 2: ‘The half that has never been told’: can lived experiences be treated as International Historical Sociologies?
Robbie Shilliam (Oxford)
- Paper 4: 911: The re-emergence of colonial governmentality
Michael Dutton (Goldsmiths)
- Discussant: Ann Tickner (University of Southern California)

3-25 Private Actors and the Construction of Identity and Violence

Violence beyond the State

M PLANA

- Chair: Ted Hopf (Harvard University)
- Paper 1: Why killing their own neighbours and family? An anthropology of violent “ethnic conflicts” in contemporary Balkans
Adrienn Lilla Juhasz (Corvinus University of Budapest)
- Paper 2: The institutionalisation of violence beyond the state: the case of Angola
Mathieu Petithomme (Institute for Political Studies, Paris)
- Paper 3: The top-down privatisation of violence in Nigerian oil sector
Nils Duquet (Flemish Peace Institute)
- Discussant: Tom Biersteker (Brown University)

SESSION 4: FRIDAY, 14 SEPTEMBER 2007, 8.45 – 10.30

4-1 Media, Power and the War on Terror

Approaches to International Relations in an Age of Terror: Places, Spaces and Risks
M PLANA

- Chair: Francesco Cavatorta (Dublin City University)
- Paper 1: Mass media, 'aesthetic' religion and new empowerments in the post-global world: religion, politics and new ideological technologies
Andrea Duranti (University of Cagliari)
- Paper 2: Is Knowledge (Soft) Power? Intelligence in the making of EU soft power
Giampiero Giacomello (Università di Bologna) and Johan Eriksson (Soderton University College)
- Paper 3: Terrorizing the global civil society: As-Sahaab and the Islamic counter-reformation
Alex Ingersoll (University of Colorado)
- Discussant: Maura Conway (Dublin City University)

4-2 Peace and International Security

Central Concepts in IR: a meta-theoretical conversation
IV ROSINE

- Chair: Javier Vadell (Pontificia Universidade Católica de Minas Gerais)
- Paper 1: Peace and international security: meta-theoretical conversations
Natalie Tovmasyan Riegg (University of Saint Mary)
- Paper 2: Exporting democracy: the hegemon concern with peace or security?
Maria Helena Castro Santos (University of Brasilia)
- Paper 3: The false promise of constructivist optimism
Bernd Bucher (University of St. Gallen)
- Discussant: Oliver Kessler (University of Bielefeld)

4-3 EU policy-making and conflict transformation

Conflict Transformation – European Experience(s)
2 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Stine Andersen (European University Institute)
- Paper 1: Kingdon goes transnational: multiple streams and discourse entrepreneurs in peace operations
Julian Junk (University of Konstanz) and Joachim Blatter (Erasmus University of Rotterdam)
- Paper 2: European policy-making towards the Middle East peace process: comparing the foreign policies of France, the UK and Germany
Patrick Mueller (Institute for Advanced Studies)
- Paper 3: New logics of integration in the EU Common Foreign and Security Policy: Transformation of conflict-resolution mechanisms in the intergovernmental decision-making process
Cesar Garcia Perez de Leon (University of Geneva)

Discussant: Thorsten Gromes (University of Marburg)

4-4 Security and Risk

Critical Approaches to Security in Europe

B PLANA

Chair: J. Peter Burgess (PRIO)

Paper 1: Risk and the perils of proactive security policy
Christopher Daase (University of Munich)

Paper 2: Security and three concepts of risk
Stephan Elbe (University of Sussex)

Paper 3: Risk markets: the commodification of security and risk
Elke Krahnemann (University of Bristol)

Paper 4: Drug trafficking: threat or risk? A comparative analysis of drug policies in Afghanistan, Pakistan and Iran
Janet Kursawe (GIGA Institut of Middle East Studies)

Discussant: J. Peter Burgess (PRIO)

4-5 Concepts of Multiculturalism in International Relations

Cultural Plurality in IR Theory and IR Practice

6 GIOLITTI

Chair: Radka Neumannová (Multicultural Center, Prague)

Paper 1: Multiculturalism and cultural diversity in modern nation-state
Radka Neumannová (Multicultural Center, Prague)

Paper 2: Multiculturalism and caring ethics. Beyond paternalist care – towards a critical and caring multiculturalism
Sarah Scuzzarello (University of Lund)

Paper 3: Dialogue as synthesis to cross-cultural mutualism: an Afro-European Mediterranean cultural discourse
Omena Henry-A and Cyril Ekuaze (University of Benin)

Paper 4: How far could the phenomena of Euroregions evolve
Andi Coxa (istituto di Sociologia Internazionale di Gorizia)

4-6 Law vs. Politics: A Focus on Norms

Democratic Legitimacy Upheld? On the Politicisation of the Law and the Legalisation of International Politics

1 GIOLITTI

Chair: Christopher May (Lancaster University)

Paper 1: Interfaces of law and politics: on the discursive construction of legal norms and institutions
Nicole Deittelhoff (Peace Research Institute Frankfurt)

Paper 2: What is the „better argument“? Towards a non-consent based criterion for legitimacy
Alexander Heppt (Ludwig-Maximilians Universität)

Paper 3: Legalisation and the missing link to constitutionalisation

- Tanja Hitzel-Cassagnes (Leibnitz University) and Nadja Meisterhans (Leibnitz University Hannover)
- Paper 4: Politics vs. law in the international realm. a critical discussion based on the German International Law Criminal Code
Antje Wiener (University of Bath) and Wolfgang Kaleck (Die Firma Berlin)
- Discussant: Christopher May (Lancaster University)

4-7 Theorising global governance III

Global governance, a critical encounter: depoliticisation/repoliticisation in theory and practice

4 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Carlos R. S. Milani (Universidade Federal de Bahia, Brazil)
- Paper 1: How global and why governance? Ambivalences, blind spots, and challenges for a critical global governance literature
Philipp Pattberg (University of Amsterdam) and Klaus Dingwerth (University of Bremen)
- Paper 2: Liberal norms and global environmental governance
Eero Palmujoki (University of Tampere)
- Paper 3: How to study the influence of business actors in environmental governance? The limits of International Relations and International Political Economy approaches
Amandine Bled (Institute of Political Studies, France)
- Discussant: Carlos R. S. Milani (Universidade Federal de Bahia, Brazil)

4-8 Public-Private Partnerships in Global Health Governance

Global Health Challenges in/for International Relations

8 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Amanda Dickens (University of East Anglia)
- Paper 1: Global public-private partnerships for pharmaceuticals access: ethical and operational features, challenges, and prospects
Sherri Brown (Simon Fraser University)
- Paper 2: Global public health as a unique issue-area with high levels of innovative forms of governance
Carmen Huckel (University of Tuebingen)
- Paper 3: Partnerships in global health: opportunities and challenges
Sonja Bartsch (GIGA)
- Paper 4: Entrepreneurial capitalism and policy entrepreneurship
Michael Moran (University of Melbourne)
- Discussant: Wolfgang Hein (GIGA)

4-9 Transnationalisation of public services

Governing the service economy: International standards from a political economy perspective

5 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Brigitte Young (University of Münster)
- Paper 1: The new public service transnationals and the challenge of transnational regulation
Judith Clifton (European University Institute and Universidad de Oviedo) and Daniel Díaz-Fuentes (European University Institute and Universidad de Cantabria)
- Paper 2: International standards and the re-regulation of higher education in Chile and South Africa
Barbara Dickhaus (University of Kassel)
- Paper 3: The interdependency between supranational und international arrangements setting standards for an emerging global knowledge-based economy
Eva Hartmann (IEPI, University of Lausanne)
- Paper 4: International standards for the university: protecting environments for epistemic communities within the knowledge based economies
Piers Revell (University of Plymouth)
- Discussant: Daniel Díaz-Fuentes (Universidad de Cantabria)

4-10 Dreaming with BRICs? India, Brazil, and South Africa in Comparative Perspective

IPE, Developing Countries, and Development

9 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Lawrence Saez (London School of Economics)
- Paper 1: Economic development and the global south: what role for IBSA Dialogue Forum?
Mehmet Ozkan (Linköping University)
- Paper 2: The transformation of Indian business: from passive resisters to active promoters of globalization
Jørgen Dige Pedersen (University of Aarhus)
- Paper 3: Understanding the world trade regime: an analysis from a Brazilian perspective
Ivan Tiago Machado Oliveira (Universidade Federal da Bahia, UFBA)
- Paper 4: The transnationalization of post-Apartheid South Africa
Stephen Hurt (Oxford Brookes University)
- Discussant: Lawrence Saez (London School of Economics)

4-11 Systemic Dimensions of the Democratic Peace

Liberalism and Peace

F PLANA

- Chair: Ewan Harrison (Colgate University)
- Paper 1: Might makes right or right makes might? Two systemic democratic peace tales
Ewan Harrison (Colgate University) and Sara McLaughlin Mitchell (University of Iowa)
- Paper 2: Simulating the evolution of global democracy levels

- Paper 3: Haavard Hegre and Joachim Carlsen (Peace Research Institute Oslo)
How to think about the systemic dimensions of liberal peace
John MacMillan (Brunel University)
- Paper 4: Under construction: development, difference, and democratic duplicity as determinants of the systemic liberal peace
Erik Gartzke and Alex Weisiger (Columbia University)
- Discussant: Randolph Siverson (University of California Davis)

4-12 The ESDP Yesterday and Today

Post-Modern Foreign and Security Policy in the Enlarged Europe

A PLANA

- Chair: Brian Hocking (Loughborough University)
- Paper 1: New politics of intervention? Exploring the EU security and defence agenda
Nina Graeger (Norwegian Institute of International Affairs)
- Paper 2: Beyond the external-internal security divide: implications for theory and EU policies of protection
Magnus Ekengren (Swedish National Defence College)
- Paper 3: The transformative role of the European Security and Defence Policy – between refashioning on the world stage and creating the EU-domestic policy
Xymena Kurowska (European University Institute)
- Paper 4: Explaining the emergence of the European Security and Defence
Policy
Tuomas Forsberg (University of Helsinki)
- Discussant: Andrew Ross (University of New Mexico)

4-13 Family Resemblances: European Social Theory and American Pragmatism

Pragmatism and International Relations

7 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Gunther Hellmann (Goethe-University)
- Paper 1: Humanitarianism and solidarity: political mobilization of compassion in John Dewey's thought
Mika Aaltola (University of Minnesota)
- Paper 2: Weber, James, and Dewey: a transatlantic conversation
Patrick Thaddeus Jackson (American University)
- Paper 3: On the German reception of Peirce
Richard Beth (Library of Congress)
- Paper 4: Pragmatics of systems theory? Contradictions and complementarity between Luhmann's social theory and Pragmatism
Hans-Martin Jäger (University of Central Florida)
- Discussant: Gunther Hellmann (Goethe-University)

4-14 Foreign policy and soft power (USA)

Religion, soft power and international relations

L PLANA

- Chair: Sami Makki (EHESS-La Sorbonne)
- Paper 1: G. W. Bush's faith-based initiative and the operational strategies to win the "hearts and minds" of civilians in the Global War on Terror
Sami Makki (EHESS-La Sorbonne)
- Paper 2: The preacher and the state: radical religious preaching and hardline liberal foreign policy
Amalendu Misra (Lancaster University)
- Paper 3: A strange friend: the role of Evangelical Christians in the making of United States foreign policy towards Africa
Asteris Huliaras (Harokopion University of Athens)
- Discussant: Jeff Haynes (London Metropolitan University)

4-15 The theory/practice of contemporary security: emancipation, agency, and myth

Security, Politics, Critique

C PLANA

- Chair: Matt Davies (Newcastle University)
- Paper 1: In the quest for 'moments of emancipation': security as transformations
Soumita Basu (University of Wales, Aberystwyth)
- Paper 2: The exercise of sovereignty by the neo-liberal post-modern state: extending the national security space through the internationalization of the domestic liberal subject
Maria Fanis (Ohio University)
- Paper 3: The "fuzzy dream": discourse, historical myths, and militarized (in)security - interrogating dangerous myths of Afghanistan and the 'West'
Lori Crowe (York University)
- Discussant: Matt Davies (Newcastle University)

4-16 Small States and Europe (1)

Small States in International Affairs

10 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Anders Wivel (University of Copenhagen)
- Paper 1: Nordic influences in the EU: the importance of image in the environmental policy of the European Union
Gunnhilder Lily Magnúsdóttir (University of Iceland)
- Paper 2: Europeanisation as a source of capability for small states' foreign policy: a comparative approach of Cyprus and Malta
Charalambos Tsardanidis (Institute of International Economic Relations, Greece)
- Paper 3: Europeanisation of foreign policy in the field of human rights from a small state's perspective – an opportunity or a constraint?
Stepanka Zemanova (University of Economics, Praha)

- Paper 4: Analysis of the specific approach of Denmark to the processes of the European integration and possible parallels to the approaches of small EU members from Eastern Europe
Radim Srsen (University of Economics, Praha)

4-17 Recasting Sovereignty in the Global South

Sovereignty and Agency

N PLANA

- Chair: Tara McCormack (University of Westminster)
Paper 1: ASEAN and intervention in southeast Asia: the perils of projection
Lee Jones (University of Oxford)
Paper 2: UN-authorized intervention in Rwanda: problems of impartiality
Emily Paddon (University of Oxford)
Paper 3: Empowering Africa? Vulnerability, climate change and development
David Chandler (University of Westminster)
Paper 4: Sovereignty, intervention and environment in the global south
Keith Stanski (University of Oxford)
Discussant: Tara McCormack (University of Westminster)

4-18 Comparing the Middle East - Transitions and Non-Transitions

The Place of the Middle East in International Relations: Making Sense of Global Interconnection and Local Dynamics in Middle East Politics

E PLANA

- Chair: Cilja Harders (Free University Berlin)
Paper 1: Comparing transitions in Muslim Countries in the Middle East and Asia
Cilja Harders (Free University Berlin)
Paper 2: Rentier states and International Relations Theory
Rolf Schwarz (Graduate Institute of International Studies (HEI))
Paper 3: Domestic institutions versus changing modes of generating external rent: contending perspectives of authoritarian survival in the Middle East and North Africa
Thomas Richter (University of Bremen) -
Paper 4: The support to NGOs in the Euro-Mediterranean Partnership – investigating possible scenarios of power redistribution and political stability
Irene Bono (Università di Torino)
Discussant: Jonas Wolff (Peace Research Institute Frankfurt (PRIF))

4-19 The Asian Challenge to IR

The contribution of Regional and Area Studies to IR Theory

II ROSINE

- Chair: Martin Beck, GIGA
Paper 1: Thinking about regional security culture

- Jürgen Haacke (London School of Economics) and Paul D. Williams (George Washington University)
- Paper 2: Power and Asian cultures of cooperation
Anja Jetschke and Jürgen Rüländ (University of Freiburg)
- Paper 3: Identifying regional cultures of cooperation – the ASEAN logic of anarchy
Stefan Rother (Arnold-Bergstraesser-Institute for Development Studies)
- Discussant: Amitav Acharya (Rajaretnam School of International Studies)

4-20 Functional Differentiation and sectors in international and world society

The English School Approach to International Relations

III ROSINE

- Chair: Mathias Albert (University of Bielefeld)
- Paper 1: Functional differentiation: the curious non-encounter between Sociology and International Relations
Mathias Albert (University of Bielefeld) and Barry Buzan (LSE)
- Paper 2: Functional differentiation and rationalization in world society
George Thomas (Arizona State University)
- Paper 3: The sociology in Burton and Bull: the influence of Parsonian thought on ES thinkers
Jochen Walter (University of Bielefeld)
- Discussant: Ole Wæver (University of Copenhagen)

4-21 Identity and Foreign Policy: Turkey and the Middle East

The Place of the Middle East in International Relations: Making Sense of Global Interconnection and Local Dynamics in Middle East Politics

G PLANA

- Chair: Bahar Rumelili (Koc University Istanbul)
- Paper 1: Identity and foreign policy: Turkey and the Middle East
Bahar Rumelili (Koc University Istanbul)
- Paper 2: Turkey and the Middle East: frontiers of the new geographic imagination
Bulent Aras (Isik University Istanbul)
- Paper 3: The first modernization period and religion in Turkey (1839-1950)
Suna Guezin Kahraman (University of Bielefeld)
- Paper 4: Questions of security and identity in the post-Cold War era: Turkey, Europe and the Middle East
Sevgi Drorian (University of Reading)
- Discussant: Pinar Bilgin (Bilkent University)

4-22 UN in Peacekeeping

The UN is the globalized international system

3 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Zuzana Lehmannová (University of Economics, Prague)
 Paper 1: The role of the UN in the Middle East
 Yvona Sabackó (University of Economics, Prague)
 Paper 2: Providing UN peace operations as transnational public goods
 Alexander Kocks (Institute of International Studies, Bremen)
 Paper 3: Peacekeeping in the 21st century: a capabilities-expectations gap analysis
 Oldrich Bure (Palacky University)
 Discussant: Mario Alessi (Italian UN Association)

4-23 Remaking the West I

Towards a Post-Western West?

H PLANA

- Chair: Natalia Zaslavskaya (Saint Petersburg State University) Paper 1: Wild West versus civilized West: popular cultural reading of transatlantic relations
 Marko Lehti (Tampere Peace Research Institute)
 Paper 2: Westernization, Europeanization, and EU-ization: a twisty-turning flow of ideas
 Trine Flockhart (Danish Institute for International Studies)
 Paper 3: Whose West is it anyway? The core, margins, outsiders and the construction of a geopolitical subjectivity
 Christopher Browning (Keele University)
 Discussant: Pertti Joenniemi (Danish Institute for International Studies)

4-24 Feminism, Historical Sociology and IR

Historical Sociology

P PLANA

- Chair: Nicholas Onuf (Florida State)
 Paper 1: Journeying through International Relations: some feminist and postcolonial observations
 Ann Tickner (University of Southern California)
 Paper 2: Go (Rebecca) West? Black Lamb and Grey Falcon as a feminist IR classic
 Lene Hansen (University of Copenhagen)
 Paper 3: Rethinking global resistance: feminist activism and critical theorising in International Relations
 Catherine Eschle (Strathelyde) and Bice Maiguashca (Exeter)
 Discussant: Nicholas Onuf (Florida State)

4-25 Roundtable on the State of the Art in International Political Economy

Independent Panels and Programme Chairs' Roundtables

I ROSINE

- Chair: Morten Bøås (Faf - Institute for Applied International Studies)

Panellists: Helge Hveem (University of Oslo)
Anna Leander (Copenhagen Business School)
Sandra MacLean (Simon Fraser University)
Discussant: Ronen Palan (University of Sussex)

SESSION 5: FRIDAY, 14 SEPTEMBER 2007, 11.00 – 12.45

5-1 Who is the enemy in the War on Terror? Framing Strategies & Identities

Approaches to International Relations in an Age of Terror: Places, Spaces and Risks

M PLANA

- Chair: Yee-Kuang Heng (University of St Andrews)
Paper 1: The radical 'other': the return of 'evil' in the war on terror
Anna Geis (Peace Research Institute Frankfurt)
Paper 2: Perception and construction of 'otherness' biased by fear
Marianna Kosic and Daria Nordio (University of Trieste)
Discussant: Ken McDonagh (Trinity College Dublin)

5-2 Normative International Relations

Central Concepts in IR: a meta-theoretical conversation

IV ROSINE

- Chair: Paulo Esteves (Pontificia Universidade Católica de Minas Gerais)
Paper 1: Beyond cosmopolitanism and communitarism: world community as a singular universal
Sergei Prozorov (Petrozavodsk State University)
Paper 2: Revolutionary principles of world citizenship as critique to natural law analogies of the old law of nations
Risto Wallin (University of Helsinki)
Paper 3: Politics against the political: re-reading classical realism as a challenge to Carl Schmitt
Gergely Romsics (Collegium Budapest)
Paper 4: Re-examining core concepts of classical realism
May Amelia Heath (University of Newcastle Upon Tyne)
Discussant: Paulo Esteves (Pontificia Universidade Católica de Minas Gerais)

5-3 Domestic identities, conflict and European integration

Conflict Transformation – European Experience(s)

2 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Rodolfo Ragoneri (University of Sassari)
Paper 1: Turning victor into offender: the relevance of collective memory for post-conflict cooperation
Judith Renner and Michel-André Horelt (Ludwig-Maximilians University)
Paper 2: Reconciliation with the past: Turkey's Armenian problem
Birsen Erdogan (Maastricht University)
Paper 3: The influence of European integration in the Basque conflict: sharing sovereignty as a post-national solution?
Igor Filibi (University of the Basque Country)
Discussant: Rodolfo Ragoneri (University of Sassari)

5-4 Risk and Pre-emption

Critical Approaches to Security in Europe

B PLANA

- Chair: Rens van Munster (University of Southern Denmark)
- Paper 1: Failure as risk – governmentality of development as security
Tanja Aalberts (Leiden University)
- Paper 2: The deferred decision. risk and the algorithmic wars on terror
Louise Amoore (University of Durham)
- Paper 3: Risk, speculation and imagination: a genealogy of pre-emption
Marieke de Goede (University of Amsterdam)
- Paper 4: Tracking people, "pixallising" borders
Philippe Bonditti (Sciences-Po Paris)
- Discussant: Rens van Munster (University of Southern Denmark)

5-5 Crosscultural Negotiation in Diplomatic Studies and Practice

Cultural Plurality in IR Theory and IR Practice

6 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Brian Hurn (University of Westminster)
- Paper 1: Cross-cultural learning in diplomatic studies
Brian J. Hurn (University of Westminster)
- Paper 2: Diplomatic culture - discourse analysis
Monika Sumberova (University of Ostrava)
- Paper 3: Role of EU funds in molding attitudes towards EU integration: the case of Turkey
Elif Deniz Alakavuk and Asli Deniz Helvacioğlu (Bogazici University)
- Paper 4: Sorry, I don't understand what you mean: apologizing in international relations
Cornut Jérémie (Institut d'Etudes Politiques de Bordeaux; Université du Québec à Montréal)
- Discussant: Radka Neumannová (University of Economics Prague)

5-6 The Practice of Humanitarian Intervention & Changes in International Law

Democratic Legitimacy Upheld? On the Politicisation of the Law and the

Legalisation of International Politics

4 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Antje Wiener (University of Bath)
- Paper 1: Cosmopolitan interventions and the ethics of international law
Antonio Franceschet (University of Calgary)
- Paper 2: Humanitarian intervention: a map of the evolving post Cold War international system
Maira Lazaridou (University of Macedonia)
- Discussant: Noe Cornego (University of the Basque Country)

5-7 Global civil society

Global governance, a critical encounter: depolitisation/repolitisation in theory and practice

1 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Philip G. Cerny (Rutgers University Newark)
- Paper 1: Global democracy, private governance, and the ideology of global civil society
Christian May (University of Bremen)
- Paper 2: Deconstructing multi-stakeholderism: the discourses and realities of global governance at the World Summit on the Information Society (WSIS)
Arne Hintz (University of Hamburg)
- Paper 3: Global governance, legitimacy and contestation: a methodological approach based on the analysis of transnational social movements
Carlos R. S. Milani (Federal University of Bahia)
- Paper 4: Global governance and citizen political participation
Ramón Ruiz Ruiz (Universidad de Jaén)
- Discussant: Philip G. Cerny (Rutgers University Newark)

5-8 Globalization, Health and the Gendered Body: Critical Feminist Perspectives

Global Health Challenges in/for International Relations

8 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Kitty Corbett (Simon Fraser University)
- Paper 1: Global (bio)power, local poison: gender, sterility and rumour in the global south
Amy Kaler (University of Alberta)
- Paper 2: Patents, policies and pricing affecting access to medicines for the marginalized in a global economy
Shree Mulay (McGill University)
- Paper 3: Embodying inequalities: globalization, health and foreign domestic care workers
Denise Spitzer (University of Ottawa)
- Paper 4: Gendering the ecology of the body: reading Simmel's "The Stranger"
Lise W. Isaksen (University of Bergen)
- Discussant: Colleen O'Manique (Trent University)

5-9 Governing financial standards

Governing the service economy: International standards from a political economy perspective

5 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Charlie Dannreuther (University of Leeds)
- Paper 1: Servicing emerging markets? The regulation of global capital flows
Jasper Blom (ASSR, University of Amsterdam)
- Paper 2: A return of Keynesianism? Liquidity illusions and global financial governance

- Anastasia Nesvetailova (University of Sussex)
 Paper 3: The political economy of EU foreign policy: the impact of corporate integration on foreign policy integration in Europe since the 1980s
 Mehmet Tezcan (Free University of Brussels [VUB])
 Discussant: Brigitte Young (University of Münster)

5-10 New Security Roles of the European Union

Post-Modern Foreign and Security Policy in the Enlarged Europe

9 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Kjell Engelbrekt (Swedish National Defence College/Stockholm University).
 Paper 1: Local dimensions of a wider Europe: by-passing the modern foreign policy agendas
 Eiki Bergand and Kristian Nielsen (University of Tartu)
 Paper 2: EU civil protection and the new security role of the Union
 Niklas Bremberg Heijl (Stockholm University) and Malena Britz, (Swedish National Defence College)
 Paper 3: The construction of a European interest: homeland security and European foreign policy
 Christian Kaunert (University of Salford)
 Paper 4: Policing abroad? National police cultures and joint EU missions
 Carl-Einar Stålvant (Swedish National Defence College)
 Discussant: Nina Græger (Norwegian Institute of International Affairs)

5-11 Civil Conflict

Liberalism and Peace

F PLANA

- Chair: Håvard Hegre (Peace Research Institute Oslo)
 Paper 1: De-idealizing the democratic civil peace: on the political economy of democratic stabilization and pacification in South America
 Jonas Wolff (Peace Research Institute Frankfurt)
 Paper 2: Ethnolinguistic fractionalization and economic freedom
 Indra de Soysa (ISS/NTNU)
 Paper 3: Peace by piece: multiple parties in civil war termination
 Desiree Nilsson (Uppsala University)
 Paper 4: Authoritarian regimes and the onset of civil war
 Hanne Fjelde (Uppsala University),
 Discussant: Halvard Buhaug (Peace Research Institute Oslo)

5-12 Defence Integration in the European Union

Post-Modern Foreign and Security Policy in the Enlarged Europe

A PLANA

- Chair: Tuomas Forsberg (University of Helsinki)
 Paper 1: Drivers of defence integration within the European Union

- Kari Mottola (Policy Planning and Research, Ministry for Foreign Affairs of Finland)
- Paper 2: Turkey and defence integration in the EU
Hanna Ojanen (Finnish Institute of International Affairs)
- Paper 3: EU defence integration: support for a functionalist argument
Arita Eriksson (Swedish National Defence College)
- Paper 4: Solidarity within the Common Foreign and Security Policy
Laura Ferreira-Pereira (University of Minho) and A.J.R. Groom, University of Canterbury
- Discussant: Jennifer Erickson (Cornell University)

5-13 The Force of Speech and Structures of Collective Intentionality

Pragmatism and International Relations

7 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Helena Rytövuori-Apunen (University of Tampere)
- Paper 1: State apologies and the transformation of the international legal system
Azuolas Bagdonas (Central European University)
- Paper 2: Historical practices and the explanation of change: the transformation of European politics, 1700-1848
Kevin McMillan (University of Ottawa)
- Paper 3: Forum effects of talk
Jennifer Mitzen (Ohio State University)
- Paper 4: International transport corridors at the conjunction of geography and politics in Russia
Katri Pynnöniemi (Finnish Institute of International Affairs)
- Discussant: Richard W. Mansbach (Iowa State University)

5-14 Rebuilding Sovereigns? Sovereignty and state-building

Sovereignty and Agency

L PLANA

- Chair: David Chandler (University of Westminster)
- Paper 1: Turning Sarajevo into a 'European' capital? Trajectories of sovereignty in the reorganization of Bosnia and Herzegovina
Giulio Venneri (University of Trento)
- Paper 2: Making plans for Liberia
Morten Bøås (Fafø - Institute for Applied International Studies)
- Paper 3: Difficult political dimensions of the Cotonou Agreement
Liisa Laakso (University of Jyväskylä)
- Paper 4: New forms of state-building practices: the case of security sector reform and the role of Europe
Giovanna Bono (Institute for European Studies, VUB)
- Discussant: David Chandler (University of Westminster)

5-15 Critical security narratives: hookahs, bazookas, and beyond

Security, Politics, Critique

C PLANA

- Chair: Paul Roe (Central European University)
- Paper 1: Ambiguous narrative of the EU drugs policy: towards securitization or normalization?
Marke Hirvonen (University of Tampere)
- Paper 2: How come that small arms and light weapons are not a human security issue?
Nikola Hynek (Masaryk University Brno and University of Bradford)
- Paper 3: American hegemony and gendered nuclear proliferation
Saara Ollikainen (University of Tampere)
- Paper 4: Reflexive securitization: the environmental sector and beyond
Julia Trombetta
- Discussant: Paul Roe (Central European University)

5-16 Peoples on the move: Sovereignty and migration in international relations

Sovereignty and Agency

10 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Chris Gilligan (University of Ulster)
- Paper 1: Migration management and local outcomes: Albania, BiH and Ukraine
Martin Geiger (University of Bonn)
- Paper 2: Theorizing 'illegal' immigration in developed liberal democracies
Gerry Boucher (Queen's University Belfast)
- Paper 3: The 'container model' paradox: borders, frontiers and the states own image of itself
Festus Ikeotuonye (University College Dublin)
- Discussant: Chris Gilligan (University of Ulster)

5-17 State capacity, ethnicity, and conflict

The role of state capacity for development and peace

N PLANA

- Chair: Lars-Erik Cederman (ETH Zürich)
- Paper 1: Globalization and civil war in historical perspective
Andreas Wimmer and Brian Min (UCLA)
- Paper 2: Grasping the shape of ethnic wars
Lars-Erik Cederman and Luc Girardin (ETH Zurich)
- Paper 3: Group concentration and conflict mobilization - disentangling the mechanisms
Nils Weidmann (ETH Zurich)
- Paper 4: Fixing the fluid: theoretical and methodological strategies for endogenising ethnicity in the international escalation of 'ethnic' conflict
Martin Austvoll (PRIO, Oslo)
- Discussant: Kristian Gleditsch (University of Essex)

5-18 Exploring Mechanisms and Processes of Regional Community Building in Asia I

The contribution of Regional and Area Studies to IR Theory

E PLANA

- Chair: Anja Jetschke (University of Freiburg)
- Paper 1: Processes of institutional socialization in a contested context – the ASEAN security community
Brian Job (University of British Columbia)
- Paper 2: Socialization and Asian regionalism
David Capie (Victoria University of Wellington)
- Paper 3: Competing discourses of regional governance – the case of the “ASEAN Security Community”
Katja Freistein (Peace Research Institute Frankfurt)
- Paper 4: The balance of power and Asia-Pacific security in the 21st century
Liselotte Odgaard (Aarhus University)
- Discussant: Jürgen Haacke (London School of Economics)

5-19 Balance of Power

The English School Approach to International Relations

III ROSINE

- Chair: Benjamin de Carvalho (Norwegian Institute of International Affairs)
- Paper 1: The balance of power as an eighteenth-century institution: rekindling the history vs. science debate
Silviya Lechner (University of Wales)
- Paper 2: Guicciardini, Bull, and the balance of power
Richard Little (University of Bristol)
- Paper 3: Origins of balance of power
Torbjørn Knutsen (Norwegian Institute of Science and Technology)
- Discussant: John Hobson (Sheffield University)

5-20 Homogeneity and Heterogeneity in World Politics I: Globalisation Dynamics and the Middle East

The Place of the Middle East in International Relations: Making Sense of Global Interconnection and Local Dynamics in Middle East Politics

G PLANA

- Chair: Stephan Stetter (University of Bielefeld)
- Paper 1: World society and the Middle East: the politics of inclusion and exclusion
Stephan Stetter (University of Bielefeld)
- Paper 2: Democratisation, transitology and Orientalism: organising knowledge and moral cartographies of democratisation in the Middle East
Andrea Teti (University of Aberdeen)
- Paper 3: Deconstructing the IR meta-narrative: creating space for theorizing on political Islam
Corinna Mullin (London School of Economics)

- Paper 4: Remapping the geopolitics of globalization in the Middle East
Waleed Hazbun (Johns Hopkins University)
Discussant: J. Ann Tickner (University of Southern California)

5-21 UN, Social Development and Millennium Development Goals

The UN is the globalized international system

II ROSINE

- Chair: Ilja Ulrich (Czech UN Association)
Paper 1: The Millennium development goals of the UN as an insurance for global security
Ilja Ulrich (Czech United Nations Association)
Paper 2: The role of the UN system in the process of political articulation of local authorities as a global actor
Monica Salomon (Pontificia Universidade Católica de Rio de Janeiro) and Javier Sánchez Cano (Patronat Català pro Europa, Generalitat de Catalunya Barcelona)
Paper 3: Fulfillment of Millennium development goals - economic and social aspects
Klara Kaderabkova (University of Economics, Prague)
Paper 4: Regime failure and bilateralization - the Millennium goals and the substantive patent law treaty
Thomas Eimer (University of Hagen)
Discussant: Yvona Sabackó (University of Economics, Prague)

5-22 Remaking the West II

Towards a Post-Western West

H PLANA

- Chair: Christopher Browning (Keele University)
Paper 1: Don't mess with nature: the cultural origins of the transatlantic divide over agricultural biotechnology
Hannes R. Stephan (Keele University)
Paper 2: The remaking of the West as an ethical project
Andreas Behnke (University of Reading)
Paper 3: Ancient cynicism: a case for salvage
Piers Revell (University of Plymouth)
Discussant: Odeta Barbullushi (University of Birmingham)

5-23 Constructivism and Historical Sociology

Historical Sociology

P PLANA

- Chair: Patrick Jackson (American University)
Paper 1: Constructivist methodologies and methods: lessons to and from Historical Sociology
Roland Dannreuther (University of Edinburgh)

- Paper 2: Dialectics as constitutive process in historical international systems:
from concrete totality to context sensitivity
Rodney Bruce Hall (University of Oxford)
- Paper 3: National security as an institution: ‘constructing’ the ‘national identity state’
Bryan Mabee (Queen Mary)
- Paper 4: Historically situated typologies of the state
Simona Manea (LSE)
- Discussant: Patrick Jackson (American University)

5-24 Small States and Foreign Policy

Small States in International Affairs

3 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Nicola Smith (University of Birmingham)
- Paper 1: Small state playing the asymmetric game: evolution of Albania’s foreign policy and its relations with the United States in the post-Cold War era
Dilaver Arikian Acar (Middle East Technical University)
- Paper 2: Power, preferences and political discourse: exploring the transformation of Danish foreign policy
Anders Wivel (University of Copenhagen)
- Paper 3: Continuity and change in the Baltic Sea region: looking at the impact of enlargement on Baltic foreign policy David Galbreath (University of Aberdeen) and Ainus Lasas (University of Washington)
- Paper 4: In the shadow of our brethren: foreign policy similarity in the Iberian Peninsula
Diogo Moreira (University of Lisbon)

5-25 Transnational Networks and Terrorism

Violence beyond the State

I ROSINE

- Chair: Francesco Tuccari (University of Turin)
- Paper 1: Authority beyond the state?
Burcu Sari (Bilkent University)
- Paper 2: Religious terrorist groups and political power: an ambiguous relationship
Luca Ozzano (University of Turin)
- Paper 3: Powerful wizards or insignificant nerds? On the privatization of propaganda, images and fear in cyber wars
Johan Eriksson (Södertörn University College) and Giampiero
Giacomello (Università di Bologna)
- Discussant: Ted Hopf (Harvard University)

SESSION 6: FRIDAY, 14 SEPTEMBER 2007, 13.45 – 15.30

6-1 The International order in Flux after 9/11

Approaches to International Relations in an Age of Terror: Places, Spaces and Risks
II ROSINE

- Chair: Yee-Kuang Heng (University of St Andrews)
Paper 1: 9/11 and its impact on realism
Gultekin Sumer (Maltepe University)
Paper 2: Military power reconstructed – the revolution in military affairs and the global war on terror as American projects to reconstruct the constitutive elements of military power
Jyri Raitasalo (National Defence University, Finland)
Paper 3: Violent globalism – conflict in response to empire
Anna Cornelia Beyer (University of Tübingen)
Paper 4: Liquid sovereignty in post-modern world order
Pawel Frankowski (UMCS-Poland)
Discussant: Columba Peoples (Swansea University)

6-2 European integration and conflict transformation on the edge: Cyprus and Turkey

Conflict Transformation – European Experience(s)
IV ROSINE

- Chair: Elise Feron (Institute d'études politiques de Lille)
Paper 1: The linkage problematic between the EU and grassroots in conflict transformation: The case of Cyprus
Zeliha Khashman (Near East University)
Paper 2: Meeting human needs, preventing violence: applying human needs theory to the "Armenian question" between Turks and Armenians
Havva Kök (Hacettepe University)
Paper 3: Settlements in unended conflicts: Cyprus
Keith Webb and AJR Groom (University of Kent)
Paper 4: The role of the EU in the transformation of national security conceptions of Turkey, Greece and Cyprus in the Eastern Mediterranean: challenges and opportunities
Ozlem Kaygusuz (Mersin University)
Discussant: Elise Feron (Institute d'études politiques de Lille)

6-3 Conflict transformation in the European Union's Neighbourhood

Conflict Transformation – European Experience(s)
2 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Keth Webb (University of Kent)
Paper 1: More than neighbours: the European Union and Ukraine – new challenges in relations
Olga Pyshchulina (National Institute for Strategic Studies, Kiev)
Paper 2: The EU's role in conflict resolution: the case of Moldova

- Odette Tomescu-Hatto (Sciences-Po Paris)
- Paper 3: The European Neighbourhood Policy and EU policies in conflict prevention and crisis management in Eastern Europe and the Maghreb: a comparison
Jean Crombois (American University in Bulgaria)
- Paper 4: Stretching to Russian borders and acting beyond them: the EU-Russia “strategic partnership”
Maria Raquel Freire (University of Coimbra)
- Discussant: Patrick Mueller (Institute for Advanced Studies)

6-4 Privatization of security

Critical Approaches to Security in Europe

B PLANA

- Chair: Didier Bigo (Sciences Po Paris)
- Paper 1: Military duels, police operations and struggles over legitimacy: symbolic mediation in “Security and Stability Operations” in Kosovo, Afghanistan and Iraq
Christian Olsson (Institut d'Etudes Politiques de Paris)
- Paper 2: The privatization of homeland security: understanding the transatlantic dynamics in the EU
Sami Makki (EHESS-La Sorbonne)
- Paper 3: The impunity of private authority: understanding the circumscribed efforts to introduce PMC accountability
Anna Leander (Copenhagen Business School)
- Paper 4: Humanitarian actors’ risk management in complex environments: are private security companies a solution?
Jean S. Renouf (LSE)
- Discussant: Didier Bigo (Sciences Po Paris)

6-5 Consensus and Conflict in Politics: Language Issues of Discourse in Political Interaction

Cultural Plurality in IR Theory and IR Practice

6 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Louis Mazzari (Fatih University)
- Paper 1: Self and other in international political theory: assimilation and incommensurability in encountering the radical other
Vassilios Paipais (LSE)
- Paper 2: The increasing role of ideologies in IRs
Fabio Fossati (University of Trieste)
- Paper 3: Islamic responses to US hegemony and world order
Tomas Drobik (Ostrava University)
- Discussant: Luca de Ioanna (University of Bologna)

6-6 Transforming European Security Institutions

Critical Approaches to Security in Europe

4 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Laura Ferreira-Pereira (University of Minho)
- Paper 1: ESDP and the ‘fight against organised crime’
Felix Berenskoetter (LSE)
- Paper 2: Secur(itiz)ing the West
Gabi Schlag, Benjamin Herboth, and Gunther Hellmann (University Frankfurt)
- Paper 3: The EU’s CFSP/ESDP and the human security concept: securitisation or desecuritisation of the European security strategy?
Ana Isabel Xavier (University of Coimbra)
- Paper 4: OSCE – acknowledging its social constructivist structure and the consequences thereof
Ioana Cismas (Institut Universitaire de Hautes Études Internationales, Genève)
- Discussant: Laura Ferreira-Pereira (University of Minho)

6-7 Roundtable: International Relations – Pluralism or Hegemony?

Independent Panels and Programme Chairs’ Roundtables

A PLANA

- Chair: Thomas Diez (University of Birmingham)
- Participants: Stefano Guzzini (DIIS and University of Uppsala)
Bahar Rumelili (Koc University Istanbul)
Ann Tickner (University of Southern California)
Brigitte Vassort-Rousset (Université Pierre-Mendès-France Grenoble)
Ole Wæver (University of Copenhagen)

6-8 Identity, security and the politics of belonging

Critical Approaches to Security in Europe

I ROSINE

- Chair: Peter Nyers (McMaster University)
- Paper 1: Nationalism beyond the nation state: identity practices and security practices
Till Förster (University of Basel)
- Paper 2: Ethnic war, sectarian violence. on the returning buzzwords of anti-politics
Francesco Ragazzi (Northwestern University)
- Paper 3: Securitizing citizens? A dialogical understanding
Xavier Guillaume (University of Geneva)
- Paper 4: The youth gangs in Central America and the security-oriented approach
Pasquale Capizzi (EHESS)
- Paper 5: The sprawl of security – migration constructions: must all meanings be relative?
Martin Heisler (University of Maryland)

Discussant: Peter Nyers (McMaster University)

6-9 Changing governance of accounting & auditing I

Governing the service economy: International standards from a political economy perspective

5 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Ronen Palan (University of Birmingham)
- Paper 1: Deliberative transnationalism in the governance of international accounting standards
Tony McGrew (University of Southampton) and Paola Robotti (University of Warwick)
- Paper 2: The privatization of standards and its eroding effect on coordinated market economies in the European Union
Andreas Noelke (Frankfurt University and VU Amsterdam)
- Paper 3: IFAC and the changing governance of auditing
Anne Loft and Christopher Humphrey (Manchester Business School)
- Discussant: Dieter Kerwer (TU München)

6-10 Greater Asia, The Middle East, and Energy Security

IPE, Developing Countries, and Development

9 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Morten Bøås (Fafø - Institute for Applied International Studies)
- Panel 1: Will Iran satisfy China's energy demand? The effects of globalization on the energy demand allocation and on the strengthening of Iran's market power
Maurizio Cociancich and Fabio Massimo Parenti (University of Trieste)
- Paper 2: Oil and development in Iraq: implications for state-building and regional cooperation in energy security
Pinar Ipek (Bilkent University)
- Paper 3: Setting priorities. Syrian nationalism facing world interdependence.
Massimiliano Trentin (University of Florence)
- Paper 4: Interaction in central Asia: Russia and Kazakhstan
Yuri Ovseenko (Russian Academy of Sciences)
- Discussant: Morten Bøås (Fafø - Institute for Applied International Studies)

6-11 Liberal Attributes and Global Implications

Liberalism and Peace

F PLANA

- Chair: Nils Petter Gleditsch (Peace Research Institute Oslo)
- Paper 1: International "bullying", democratic style: joining behavior, regime type, and status quo
Renato Corbetta (University of Alabama Birmingham)

- Paper 2: Globalization and the terrorism: the perpetrators' motives in a dyadic perspective
Gerald Schneider and Iris Stengel (University of Konstanz)
Discussant: Nils Petter Gleditsch (Peace Research Institute Oslo)

6-12 The Impact Abroad of the European Union

Post-Modern Foreign and Security Policy in the Enlarged Europe

1 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Jaap H. de Wilde (University of Twente and Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam)
Paper 1: The process of Europeanization in Macedonia
Teresa Cierco (University Lusiada)
Paper 2: Shaping Turkish democracy: the impact of the EU on Turkey's constitutional amendments, 2000-2005
Abdullah Bal (Adnan Menderes University and QCIR)
Paper 3: European policy on arms export controls: shifting scales and breaking barriers
Sara Depauw (Flemish Peace Institute)
Paper 4: European strategic vision and Turkey's EU bid
Muge Kinacioglu (London School of Economics)
Discussant: Arita Eriksson (Swedish National Defence College)

6-13 Projections of Institutional Governmental Policies in Times of Radical Change

Pragmatism and International Relations

7 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Osmo Apunen (University of Tampere)
Paper 1: Regression of German foreign policy - a counterfactual analysis
Hendrik Hartenstein (Goethe-University, Frankfurt)
Paper 2: Being interested in a big neighbour: Russia and the Finnish Defence Establishment
Arto Nokkala (University of Tampere)
Paper 3: Russian postcommunism and the politics of pure praxis
Sergei Prozorov (University of Helsinki)
Paper 4: Trusting relationships and silent knowledge in Finnish-Soviet/Russian relations
Helena Rytövuori-Apunen (University of Tampere)
Discussant: Alexander Astrov (Central European University)

6-14 Foreign policy and soft power (Israel, India, Iran)

Religion, soft power and international relations

L PLANA

- Chair: James Chiriyankandath (London Metropolitan University)
Paper 1: Religious nationalism and foreign policy: India and Israel compared

- Paper 2: James Chiriyankandath (London Metropolitan University)
The potentials and limitations of soft power: Israel's religious right and the dream of Greater Israel
- Paper 3: Claudia Baumgart (Peace Research Institute Frankfurt)
Religion, soft power and foreign policy: the case of Iran
- Discussant: Mohammad Nafissi (London Metropolitan University)
Geert Castryk (Flemish Peace Institute)

6-15 The politics of security: regions and sectors

Security, Politics, Critique

C PLANA

- Chair: P. H. Liotta (Salve Regina University)
- Paper 1: Regional cooperation and third world security: the case of small arms and light weapons
Jennifer Erickson (Cornell University)
- Paper 2: Can we create a military where authority does not mean tyranny?
Erika Svedberg (Oerebro University)
- Paper 3: Security sectors and security actors: discussing the viability of the Copenhagen School in the Cyprus question
Alper Kaliber (University of Birmingham)
- Discussant: P.H. Liotta (Salve Regina University)

6-16 Small States and Europe (2)

Small States in International Affairs

10 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Andre Broome (The Australian National University)
- Paper 1: European neutrality and the ESDP: the end of a small state's niche strategy?
Jean-Marc Rickli (University of Oxford)
- Paper 2: Euroregion between Italy-Slovenia-Croatia-Hungary
Andrej Bertok (IUIES-ISIG (Gorizia-Italy))
- Paper 3: Luxembourg's role in the SGP at the Dublin Summit in 1996 and its reform in 2005
Martine Huberty (University of Sussex)

6-17 Sovereign insecurity: The challenge of human security

Sovereignty and Agency

N PLANA

- Chair: Vanessa Pupavac (University of Nottingham)
- Paper 1: Human security and human insecurity
Tara McCormack (University of Westminster)
- Paper 2: Beyond liberal bio-politics: Imagining a post-human security form of individual security

- David Bosold (University of Marburg) and Nikola Hynek (Masaryk University Brno & University of Bradford)
- Paper 3: Managing security at a distance: the global governmentality of human (in)security
Nadine Voelkner (University of Sussex)
- Paper 4: Data-mining as political closure: decisionist technology and the shoring up of the ontological/everyday security divide
Solon Barocas (Russell Sage Foundation)
- Discussant: Vanessa Pupavac (University of Nottingham)

6-18 Political institutions and state capacity

The role of state capacity for development and peace

E PLANA

- Chair: Ola Listhaug (NTNU)
- Paper 1: Democratic waves? War, new states, and global patterns of democratization, 1800-1998
Scott Gates, Håvard Hegre, Håvard Strand and Mark Jones (NTNU / CSCW, PRIO)
- Paper 2: Political opportunity structures and civil war
Kristian Skrede Gleditsch & Andrea Ruggeri (University of Essex)
- Paper 3: Non-random selection of civil wars and the duration of post-conflict peace
Tobias Hofmann (FU Berlin) and Lena Schaffer (ETH Zürich)
- Paper 4: State-building and the UN: conceptual and methodological issues in defining democracy
Kirsten Haack (Open University / The Glasgow School of Art)
- Discussant: Ekkart Zimmermann (University of Dresden)

6-19 Limitations on Warfare

The English School Approach to International Relations

III ROSINE

- Chair: Halvard Leira (Norwegian Institute of International Affairs)
- Paper 1: Just war, legal war, and hegemony in early-modern Europe
Randall Lesaffer (Tilburg University)
- Paper 2: Westphalian Just War: Hedley Bull and the privileging of the state in the ethical limits on the use of force
John Williams (Durham University)
- Paper 3: War as the mirrored image of international society. the English School and the growing crisis of war convention
Alessandro Colombo (University of Milano)
- Discussant: Jens Bartelson (University of Copenhagen)

6-20 Homogeneity and Heterogeneity in World Politics II: Globalisation Dynamics and the Middle East

The Place of the Middle East in International Relations: Making Sense of Global Interconnection and Local Dynamics in Middle East Politics

G PLANA

- Chair: Karin Aggestam (Lund University)
- Paper 1: The periphery as the core: state transformation in Yemen in the context of the “Global War on Terror”
Ludmila du Bouchet (University of Cambridge)
- Paper 2: Liberalization between global city and Islamic medina: Jordan case-study
Claudia Corsi (University of Naples)
- Paper 3: Security, globalisation and state transformation in the Middle East
Karin Aggestam (Lund University) and Helena Lindholm Schulz, Gothenborg University
- Paper 4: Afghanistan's security hurdle: competition and co-operation amongst political rentiers and drug rentiers
Florian P. Kuehn (Helmut-Schmidt-University Hamburg)
- Discussant: Federica Bicchi (London School of Economics and Political Science)

6-21 UN and the Global Development Market Place

The UN is the globalized international system

3 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Ilja Ulrich (Czech United Nations Association)
- Paper 1: Searching for light in darkness: the legitimacy of UN reform in the global development marketplace
Arthur Muhlen Schulte (Copenhagen Business School)
- Paper 2: The new involvement of private sector in the United Nations: dangerously eroding the profit/non profit divide
Javier Uncelabarrenechea (University of the Basque)
- Paper 3: Thirty years of corporate social responsibility within the UN: from codes of conduct to norms
Lisbeth Segerlund (University of Stockholm)
- Discussant: Ilja Ulrich (Czech United Nations Association)

6-22 The West in National Identity Discourses: the ‘old Europe’

Towards a Post-Western West

H PLANA

- Chair: Piers Revell (University of Plymouth)
- Paper 1: A “bridge” between the “two Wests”? The British identity dilemma in a post-Atlanticist age
Kai Hebel (University of Oxford)
- Paper 2: The evolution of the Euro-Atlantic pluralistic security community: the presence of American bases in Italy
Carla Monteleone (University of Palermo)
- Paper 3: Is Turkey Muslim and/or European? The construction of Turkey in Danish identity politics

Discussant: Ulrik Pram Gad (University of Copenhagen)
Christopher Browning (Keele University)

6-23 'Long-Term' Perspectives on the Making of the Modern World

Historical Sociology

P PLANA

Chair: Martin Hall (Lund University)
Paper 1: Italy and Spain: two models of Hobbesian state/society complexes
Ernesto Gallo (University of Turin)
Paper 2: World politics as a civilizing process?
Herbert Dittgen (Johannes-Gutenberg Universität)
Paper 3: The study of long-term change and world political institutions
Fulvio Attina (University of Catania)
Paper 4: Should we examine a map and remember the past? How geography and history enter into connection with International Relations
António Ramos dos Santos (University of Lisbon)
Discussant: Martin Hall (Lund University)

6-24 Regulating Private Military Companies and Non-State Armed Groups

Violence beyond the State

M PLANA

Chair: Tom Biersteker (Brown University)
Paper 1: Private military companies: a second best peacekeeping option?
Oldoich Bures (Palacky University)
Paper 2: Controlling the corporate warriors: a normative challenge
Dominica Svarc (LSE)
Discussant: Fabio Armao (University of Turin)

SESSION 7: FRIDAY, 14 SEPTEMBER 2007, 16.00 – 17.45

7-1 Understanding Political Islam

Approaches to International Relations in an Age of Terror: Places, Spaces and Risks
III ROSINE

- Chair: Maura Conway (Dublin City University)
Paper 1: Alternative Islamic voices for religious extremism
Aini Linjakumpu (University of Lapland)
Paper 2: The Arab debate on the causes of Islamist terrorism
Lars Berger (Friedrich Schiller University)
Paper 3: The impact of the 'ideologization of terror' paradigm on the study of political Islam
Corinna Mullin (LSE)
Discussant: Francesco Cavatorta (Dublin City University)

7-2 Meta-theory of IR Theory

Central Concepts in IR: a meta-theoretical conversation Meta-theory of IR Theory
IV ROSINE

- Chair: Colin Wight (University of Exeter)
Paper 1: What is IR theory? The question of theoretical autonomy
Silviya Lechner (University of Wales)
Paper 2: Critical Theory and Post-positivism: IR and the significance of philosophy
Eduardo Neves-Silva (Pontificia Universidade Católica de Minas Gerais)
Paper 3: Unpacking autonomy
Ossi Piirinen (University of Helsinki)
Discussant: Colin Wight (University of Exeter)

7-3 CFSP, ESDP and conflict transformation in Europe and beyond

Conflict Transformation – European Experience(s)
2 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Maria Raquel Freire (University of Coimbra)
Paper 1: Implementing ESDP in Africa: the case of the Congo
Marta Martinelli (Universite Libre Bruxelles)
Paper 2: France, the United Kingdom, and EU capacity for military intervention in Africa
Christopher Griffin (University of Southern California, Los Angeles)
Paper 3: Tear down this wall: CFSP and the place of partition in entrenched
European conflicts
Hilary Bown (Institute for Peace Research and Security Policy Hamburg)
Paper 4: The powers of the EU: coupling normative power with military power
Annika Björkdahl (Lund University)
Discussant: Jean Crombois (American University in Bulgaria)

7-4 Desecuritization and security as a common good

Critical Approaches to Security

B PLANA

- Chair: Jef Huysmans (Open University)
Paper 1: Other securities
J. Marshall Beier and Peter Nyers (McMaster University)
Paper 2: Being positive, creating security in theory and practice
Paul Roe (Central European University) and Gunhild Hoogensen
(University of Tromsø)
Paper 3: The promises, problems and politics of desecuritization
Ole Wæver (University of Copenhagen)
Discussant: Jef Huysmans (Open University)

7-5 Politicians and Linguists on Language in Modern Political Theory

Cultural Plurality in IR Theory and IR Practice

3 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Vassil Anastassov (Fatih University)
Paper 1: Knowledge about language as knowledge about the time-space ego social environment
Vassil Anastassov (Fatih University)
Paper 2: Language and world's limits
Luca De Ioanna (University of Bologna)
Paper 3: Staying on message – creating consensus in post 9/11 in America
Louis Mazzari (Fatih University Istanbul)
Discussant: Lucie Tunkrova (Palacky University)

7-6 The domestic and global constitution of insecurity and order

Critical Approaches to Security in Europe

4 GIOLITTI

- Chair: David Chandler (University of Westminster)
Paper 1: The constitutions of ethical Briton and its effect on British security imagery
Maria Fanis (Ohio University)
Paper 2: An uncertain stand between threat and overreaction: critical approaches to contemporary global security
José Rodrigues dos Santos (Academia Militar Univ. of Evora - Center for Interdisciplinary Studies, CIDEHUS)
Paper 3: Securitization in the context of global hegemony: US-Turkish relations in perspective
Ozlem Kaygusuz (Mersin University)
Discussant: David Chandler (University of Westminster)

7-7 The global governance-security nexus

Global governance, a critical encounter: depolitisation/repolitisation in theory and practice

1 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Elizabeth de Zutter (Maastricht University)
- Paper 1: The good governance imperative: human security, securitization and poverty reduction development aid in the contemporary Solomon Islands society
Anita Lacey (University of Auckland)
- Paper 2: Global governance and the international regulation of the family
Lorraine Macmillan (University of Cambridge)
- Paper 3: Limits and challenges to global governance: the international political economy of natural gas
Kirsten Westphal (Justus-Liebig-Universität Gießen)
- Discussant: Elizabeth de Zutter (Maastricht University)

7-8 The Politics of Global Pandemics

Global Health Challenges in/for International Relations

9 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Pieter Fourie (University of Johannesburg)
- Paper 1: Politicized pandemics: the threat of disease and changing world politics
Mika Aaltola (University of Minnesota)
- Paper 2: Global health governance and Canadian foreign policy
Colleen O'Manique (Trent University)
- Paper 3: International law and globalization of public health: did SARS catalyze a paradigm shift in international security?
Obijiofor Aginam (Carleton University)
- Discussant: Craig Janes (Simon Fraser University)

7-9 Changing governance of accounting & auditing II

Governing the service economy: International standards from a political economy perspective

5 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Tony McGrew (University of Southampton)
- Paper 1: Changes in professional standardization - the role of private actors in international accounting regulation
Sebastian Botzem (FU Berlin)
- Paper 2: Service firms and corporate social responsibility standardization
Luc Fransen (University of Amsterdam) and Jeroen Merk (Clean Clothes Campaign)
- Paper 3: Accountability in the global accounting field
Dieter Kerwer (TU Muenchen)

Paper 4: Global governance of international accounting standards
Ronen Palan (University of Birmingham)
Discussant: Andreas Nölke (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam)

7-10 Kantian Peace Theory

Liberalism and Peace

F PLANA

Chair: Matthew Rendall (University of Nottingham)
Paper 1: More than one way to skin a Kant: a liberal evolutionary theory of the democratic peace
Ben Kamis (University of Tübingen),
Paper 2: On the discord between morality and politics: a contribution to the renaissance of Kantian thinking in IR theory
Tomas Baum (Flemish Peace Institute)
Paper 3: The democratic imperative of theoreticians
Piki Ish-Shalom (Hebrew University of Jerusalem)
Paper 4: The people and war
Francisco de Santibanes (Kings College London)
Discussant: Matthew Rendall (University of Nottingham)

7-11 European Strategic Culture

Post-Modern Foreign and Security Policy in the Enlarge Europe

A PLANA

Chair: Hanna Ojanen (Finnish Institute of International Affairs)
Paper 1: European strategic culture in the aftermath of Concordia, Artemis and Althea
Paraschos Lianos (University of Leicester)
Paper 2: The European Union: a strategic actor under permanent construction?
Kjell Engelbrekt and Jan Hallenberg (Swedish National Defense College)
Paper 3: Rethinking the European Union's role in the global arena: the relevance of conflict prevention
Natalia F. de O. Marques Leal (University of Kent at Canterbury)
Paper 4: The poverty of EU-centrism - the wealth of concentric Europe
Jaap H. de Wilde (University of Twente and Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam)
Discussant: Rafael Biermann (US Naval Postgraduate School)

7-12 The Art, Wisdom and Science of Statecraft & Diplomacy in World Politics

Pragmatism and International Relations

7 GIOLITTI

Chair: Alexander Astrov (Central European University)
Paper 1: The wisdom of a pawn
Osmo Apunen (University of Tampere)
Paper 2: Distinguishing practices: diplomacy, realpolitik and world politics

- Paper 3: Alexander Astrov (Central European University) Authority, community and the rise of power – clash of ideas in the modernized America
 Wojciech Przybylski (University of Warsaw)
- Discussant: Jennifer Mitzen (Ohio State University)

7-13 Christianity (Orthodoxy)

Religion, soft power and international relations

L PLANA

- Chair: John Anderson (St. Andrews University)
- Paper 1: Orthodoxy and the dilemmas of globalisation
 John Anderson (St. Andrews University)
- Paper 2: The influence of the Orthodox Church on Serbian domestic and foreign policy: the case of Kosovo
 Klara Bratova (University of Economics, Praha)
- Paper 3: The Orange Revolution: politics and the Ukrainian religious confessions
 Igor Gretskiy (St. Petersburg State University)
- Discussant: Todd Kent (Texas A&M University-Qatar)

7-14 Security and the global system: pre-emption, deterrence, and fragmentation

Security, Politics, Critique

C PLANA

- Chair: Brigitte Vassort-Rousset (Université Pierre-Mendès-France Grenoble)
- Paper 1: Concepts of preemption, imminent threat and security in the post-9/11 world
 Katarzyna Furmanek (Jagiellonian University)
- Paper 2: Deterrence, soft power and offensive realism
 Patrick James (University of Southern California)
- Paper 3: Towards a theory of fragmentation: international coexistence and the transformation of war
 Alessandro Vitale (Milan University)
- Discussant: Brigitte Vassort-Rousset (Université Pierre-Mendès-France Grenoble)

7-15 Small States and Security

Small States in International Affairs

10 GIOLITTI

- Chair: David Galbreath (University of Aberdeen)
- Paper 1: Small state proactivism in arms control and disarmament - the case of Ireland
 Una Becker (Peace Research Institute Frankfurt)
- Paper 2: Small states, big influence: the overlooked Nordic influence on the civilian ESDP

- Paper 3: Peter Viggo Jakobsen (University of Copenhagen)
Small European states and different forms of post-neutrality: a comparative analysis
Siegfried Schieder and Rachel Folz (University of Trier)
- Paper 4: 'Democratic' political reform and security in a small state: the case of Bahrain
Annita Lazar (Nanyang Technological University)

7-16 Alternatives to sovereignty in post-conflict spaces

Sovereignty and Agency

N PLANA

- Chair: Lee Jones (University of Oxford)
- Paper 1: The simulation and dissimulation of sovereignty in post-conflict spaces: the case of security sector reform in Tajikistan
John Heathershaw (University of Notre Dame)
- Paper 2: Of sovereignty and other façades: international intervention, security sector reform and stateness in Bosnia and Herzegovina
Berit Bliesemann de Guevara (Helmut Schmidt University, Hamburg)
- Paper 3: On the politics of informal states: re-centering the state and de-centering sovereignty?
Daria Isachenko (HU Berlin)
- Discussant: Lee Jones (University of Oxford)

7-17 Lewis Fry Richardson Award Ceremony: Roundtable Honouring the Recipient of the 3rd Richardson Lifetime Achievement Award

The role of state capacity for development and peace

I ROSINE

- Chair: Gerald Schneider (University of Konstanz)
- Paper 1: Preponderance may pacify, but power kills: the gravity model of conflict
Håvard Hegre (PRIO / University of Oslo):
- Paper 2: Trade networks and the Kantian peace
Han Dorussen (University of Essex) and Hugh Ward
- Paper 3: Disaggregating public opinion on the ethnic conflict in Macedonia
Kristen Ringdal, Albert Simkus, and Ola Listhaug (NTNU)
- Paper 4: Economic development and the casualties in interstate conflict
Erik Gartzke (Columbia University)
- Paper 5: Rules that matter: another look at the democratic civil peace
Gerald Schneider (University of Konstanz)
- Discussant: Nils Petter Gleditsch (NTNU / CSCW, PRIO)

7-18 Exploring Mechanisms and Processes of Regional Community Building in Asia II

The contribution of Regional and Area Studies to IR Theory

II ROSINE

- Chair: Paul D. Williams (George Washington University)
- Paper 1: The imagined community of East Asia?
Amitav Acharya (Rajaretnam School of International Studies)
- Paper 2: The evolution of regional trust: contributions from two non-Western cases Andrea Oelsner (University of Aberdeen)
- Paper 3: Inter-regionalism
Julie Gilson (University of Birmingham)
- Discussant: Jürgen Rüländ (University of Freiburg)

7-19 Cancelled

7-20 Adaptations to Globalisation in the Middle East

The Place of the Middle East in International Relations: Making Sense of Global Interconnection and Local Dynamics in Middle East Politics

G PLANA

- Chair: Lisa Strömbom (Lund University)
- Paper 1: The Arab state in the age of globalization: considering the empirical evidence
Abdullah Alhomeid (King Saud University)
- Paper 2: The commodification of Islam
Sam Elizabeth Baroni (Florida Atlantic University)
- Paper 3: Historiography revisited, challenging security boundaries
Lisa Strömbom (Lund University)
- Paper 4: Capitalism and the post-Ottoman states system: theoretical lessons from the history of modern state formation in the Middle East
Clemens Hoffmann (University of Sussex)
- Discussant: Dirk Nabers (German Institute of Global and Area Studies Hamburg)

7-21 Seven: The West in National Identity Discourses: the ‘new Europe’

Towards a Post-Western West

H PLANA

- Chair: Bjorn Olav Knutsen (Norwegian Defence Research Establishment)
- Paper 1: The “West” in Turkish political Islam
Isik Gurleyen (Izmir University of Economics)
- Paper 2: Under the gaze of the West: reading Albanian foreign policy in the post-Communist period
Odeta Barbullushi (University of Birmingham)
- Paper 3: The ‘return to Europe’: Ukraine’s foreign policy, 1994-1998
Svitlana Kobzar (Cambridge University)
- Discussant: Marko Lehti (Tampere Peace Research Institute)

7-22 Historical Sociology and War

Historical Sociology

P PLANA

- Chair: Bryan Mabee (Queen Mary, London)
- Paper 1: Kladderadatsch: 1914 in the history of uneven and combined development
Justin Rosenberg (University of Sussex)
- Paper 2: Orientalism in times of war
Tarak Barkawi (University of Cambridge)
- Paper 3: The scientific way of warfare
Antoine Bousquet (LSE)
- Paper 4: Nuclear weapons and the recurrent crises of American realism
Campbell Craig (University of Southampton)
- Discussant: Bryan Mabee (Queen Mary, London)

7-23 Historical Sociology in the Post-Colonial World

Historical Sociology

E PLANA

- Chair: Robbie Shillam (University of Oxford)
- Paper 1: Historical Sociology and the post-colonial state in the Middle East
Toby Dodge (Queen Mary London)
- Paper 2: World cricket as a postcolonial international society
Gerard Holden
- Paper 3: One hundred years of solitude: the international relations of the 'relative autonomy' of the state in Iran
Kamran Matin (University of Sussex)
- Discussant: Robbie Shillam (University of Oxford)

7-24 Extralegal Groups, Diasporas, and Post-Conflict Peace Building

Violence beyond the State

M PLANA

- Chair: Umberto Gentiloni (University of Teramo)
- Paper 1: Building a theory of extralegal groups
Christine Cheng (University of Oxford)
- Paper 2: New security challenges to Europe and South Asia in 21st century
Raj Kishor Singh and Brijesh Singh (University of Agra)
- Paper 3: Political violence in South Asia: the role of diaspora organizations
Kavita Khory (Mount Holyoke College)
- Discussant: Christopher Jones (Brigham Young University)

SESSION 8: SATURDAY, 15 SEPTEMBER 2007, 8.45 – 10.30

8-1 Responding to Terrorism: Strategies Compared

Approaches to International Relations in an Age of Terror: Places, Spaces and Risks

I ROSINE

- Chair: Maura Conway (Dublin City University)
- Paper 1: The new battle of Algiers – evolution of counter-terrorism
Claudia Bastos Martins and Rute Domingues (Portuguese National Defense Institute)
- Paper 2: Change through debate – the case of Egypt’s counter-terrorism strategy towards the Gamaa Islamia
Carolyn Gorzig (Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität München) and Haled Al-Hashimi (Technische Universität Berlin)
- Paper 3: The economic consideration of war against terrorism. US concern
Chandar Bhushan Nagar (H.N.B Garhwal University)
- Discussant: Francesco Cavatorta (Dublin City University)

8-2 Locating IR Theory: Identity and Level of Analysis

Central Concepts in IR: a meta-theoretical conversation

IV ROSINE

- Chair: Hayward Alker (University of Southern California)
- Paper 1: Culture, ideology and identity: reconciling competing visions of the role of ideas in constructivist foreign policy analysis
Karl Schonberg (St. Lawrence University)
- Paper 2: Dissolving the international? Center and periphery in the constitution of IR theory
João Nogueira (Catholic University of Rio de Janeiro)
- Paper 3: Is level of analysis a metatheoretical problem for international studies?
Achilleas Megas (University of Leeds)
- Paper 4: Process IR: the identity/difference nexus and the “international”
Xavier Guillaume (University of Geneva)
- Discussant: Hayward Alker (University of Southern California)

8-3 Foreign and Security Policies of Turkey and the EU: Alignment and/or Tension in the New Neighbourhood? I

Conflict Transformation – European Experience(s)

2 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Mustafa Aydin (TOBB – University of Economics and Technology)
- Paper 1: Foreign and security policies of Turkey and the EU: alignment and/or tension in the new neighbourhood?
Mustafa Aydin (TOBB)
- Paper 2: Military cooperation between Turkey and the EU in the new neighbourhood
Cinar Özen (Gazi University)
- Paper 3: Western Balkans: neighbours and/or would-be members?

Discussant: Birgul Demirtas (Başkent University)
Bahar Rumelili (Koc University)

8-4 Securitization, Critical Theory and Social Constructivism

Critical Approaches to Security in Europe

B PLANA

Chair: Francesco Ragazzi (Northwestern University)
Paper 1: Trans-Atlantic divides in critical approaches to security? Identity and discourse in constructivism, feminism, poststructuralism and the Copenhagen School
Lene Hansen (University of Copenhagen)
Paper 2: Critical theory, security and politics: a contribution to current debates on security
João Nunes (University of Wales, Aberystwyth)
Paper 3: (Re)constituting ESDP in an age of terror
Sebastian Barnutz (University of Warwick)
Paper 4: Democratization as desecuritization: the case of Turkey
Munevver Cebeci (Marmara University)
Discussant: Francesco Ragazzi (Northwestern University)

8-5 The EU and other actors in conflict

Conflict Transformation – European Experience(s)

6 GIOLITTI

Chair: Thomas Diez (University of Birmingham)
Paper 1: Towards a European intervention force?
Peter H. Liotta (Pell Center for International Relations and Public Policy, Rhode Island) and Taylor Owen (Oxford University)
Paper 2: Overlapping institutions: the interplay between NATO and the EU
Stephanie Hofmann (Cornell University)
Paper 3: The impact of the EU's democratic anchoring on the settlement in Cyprus
Elena Baracani (University of Florence)
Discussant: Cesar Garcia Perez de Leon (University of Geneva)

8-6 Democracy & Society

Democratic Legitimacy Upheld? On the Politicisation of the Law and the Legalisation of International Politics

4 GIOLITTI

Chair: Claudia Wiesnaer (Institut des Etudes Politiques, Paris / Philipps University, Marburg / Justus-Liebig-University, Giessen)
Paper 1: Complicity, connivance or distancing? European reactions to the US' treatment of detainees
Sibylle Scheipers (University of Oxford)

- Paper 2: Discourse in the legal tongue: the discussion on “unlawful combatants” as an illustration of hegemonic contestation.
Ingo Venzke (Max Planck Institute for Comparative Public Law and International Law)
- Paper 3: A positive example for international legalisation?
Claudia Wiesner (Institut des Etudes Politiques, Paris / Philipps University, Marburg / Justus-Liebig-University, Giessen)
- Discussant : Claudia Wiesner (Institut des Etudes Politiques, Paris / Philipps University, Marburg / Justus-Liebig-University, Giessen)

8-7 Security practice: experts versus sovereignty

Critical Approaches to Security

1 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Tugba Basaran (University of Cambridge)
- Paper 1: Not whether but how: introducing complex securitization
Jonas Hagmann (IUHEI Geneva)
- Paper 2: Governing security, governing through security – US police assistance and liberal governmentality
Daniel Pineu (University of Wales, Aberystwyth)
- Paper 3: The role of EU technocrats in securitization in Europe
Monica Svantesson (Swedish National Defence College and Stockholm University)
- Paper 4: When experts challenged the sovereign power of the nation-state: American views on nuclear proliferation in the world and in Europe (1945-1968)
Grégoire Mallard (Princeton University)
- Discussant: Tugba Basaran (University of Cambridge)

8-8 The Securitization of Health and Disease

Global Health Challenges in/for International Relations

8 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Amy Kaler (University of Alberta)
- Paper 1: Beyond bounded space: Europe, security, and the global circulation of infectious disease
Sonja Kittelsen (International Peace Research Institute, Oslo)
- Paper 2: Bioterrorism- are we ready?
Rute Domingues and Claudia Bastos-Martins (Institute of National Defense, Portugal).
- Paper 3: Health security in a post-genome world
Arun G. Mukhopadhyay (Indian Institute of Management)
- Paper 4: A veil of terror: a detailed cases study of political terrorism in Kashmir
Sophia Johnson (Rutgers University)
- Discussant: Sandra MacLean (Simon Fraser University)

8-9 The GATS and standardisation in information and communication technologies

Governing the service economy: International standards from a political economy perspective

5 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Jean-Christophe Graz (Université de Lausanne)
- Paper 1: International standards for the service economy and the role of the WTO/GATS legal system: towards a new agreement on trade in services
Frank Altemoeller (FU Berlin)
- Paper 2: Governance through pro-competitive disciplines? The impact of the GATS negotiations on the evolvement of international standards in the services sector
Christina Deckwirth (Philipps-Universität Marburg)
- Paper 3: Global standardization of telecommunication services: conflict or coherence?
Alexia Herwig (University of Bremen)
- Paper 4: Standards in ICT sectors: competition and cooperation in new governance schemes
Michele Rioux (Université du Québec à Montréal)
- Discussant: Eva Hartmann (Université de Lausanne)

8-10 Transition Economies, Regionalism, and Integration: An Empirical Assessment

IPE, Developing Countries, and Development

9 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Brigitte Vassort-Rousset (Université Pierre-Mendès-France Grenoble)
- Paper 1: Integration and development: analyzing the impact of regional integration beyond the OECD world
Tobias Hofmann (FU Berlin)
- Paper 2: Democratization and regionalism: empirical evidence from Latin America
Leonardo Baccini (Trinity College of Dublin)
- Paper 3: Regional dynamics in South America: the decline of neoliberalism and national responses
Javier Vadell (Pontificia Universidade Católica de Minas Gerais)
- Discussant: Brigitte Vassort-Rousset (Université Pierre-Mendès-France Grenoble)

8-11 International Institutions and Peace

Liberalism and Peace

F PLANA

- Chair: Ewan Harrison (Colgate University)
- Paper 1: Form characteristics of regional security organizations: the missing link in the explanation of the democratic peace

- Matthias Dembinski and Katja Freistein (Peace Research Institute Frankfurt)
- Paper 2: The EU and conflicts in world society: theoretical considerations
Stephen Stetter (University of Bielefeld), Mathias Albert (University of Bielefeld) and Thomas Diez (University of Birmingham)
- Paper 3: Rivalries and the synergistic effect of democracy and international institutions: some evidence from Latin America
Britta Weiffen (University of Tuebingen)
- Paper 4: Between peace and war: multilateral weapons inspections in Iraq and beyond
Alexander Thompson (Ohio State University)
- Discussant: Ewan Harrison (Colgate University)

8-12 Domestic Security Co-operation in the European Union

Post-Modern Foreign and Security Policy in the Enlarged Europe

A PLANA

- Chair: Pernille Rieker (Norwegian Institute of International Affairs)
- Paper 1: Collaboration or coordination games in CFSP: why does the European foreign policy lack coherence?
Alina Vasile (Committee of the Regions)
- Paper 2: Institutional learning in European foreign policy: the case of the EU Special Representatives
Cornelius Adebahr (German Council on Foreign Relations)
- Paper 3: The Moroccan dimension of EU's internal security: the relevance of the governance approach
Sarah Wolff (London School of Economics)
- Discussant: Sergio Fabbrini (University of Trento)

8-13 The Imperative of Historical Praxis for IR Theory – Part I

Pragmatism and International Relations

7 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Richard W. Mansbach (Iowa State University)
- Paper 1: Historical perspectives on contemporary global politics
Yale Ferguson (Rutgers University) and Richard W. Mansbach (Iowa State University)
- Paper 2: On international relations and conceptual history
Martin Hall (University of Lund)
- Paper 3: Stemming anarchy in the transnational realm
Donald Puchala (University of South Carolina)
- Paper 4: Towards a comparative-historical typology of international systems
Hendrik Spruyt (Northwestern University)
- Discussant: Edward Rhodes (Rutgers University)

8-14 Rebuilding Sovereigns? (2) Sovereignty and post-conflict reconstruction

Sovereignty and Agency

L PLANA

- Chair: David Chandler (University of Westminster)
- Paper 1: From neo-colonialism to a light footprint approach
Matteo Tondini (IMT-Lucca Institute for Advanced Studies)
- Paper 2: Conflict transformation in a world of fragmented sovereignty
Daniela Koerppen (Berghof Foundation for Peace Support)
- Paper 3: Rethinking political community in post-intervention states: Cambodia and East Timor compared Caroline Hughes (University of Birmingham)
- Paper 4: Integrated governance: sharing sovereignty in post-conflict Liberia
Christine Cheng (University of Oxford)
- Discussant: David Chandler (University of Westminster)

8-15 Security policy in theory and practice: The cases of Canada and Japan

Security, Politics, Critique

C PLANA

- Chair: Kyle Grayson (Newcastle University)
- Paper 1: A post-national concept? Canadian collective identity and the human security agenda
David Bosold (University of Marburg)
- Paper 2: Conceptualising security: security threats and domestic interests in Japanese security policy after 1989
Elena Atanassova-Cornelis (Catholic University of Leuven)
- Paper 3: North American security and the Canadian perspective
Carolyn James (University of Southern California)
- Discussant: Kyle Grayson (Newcastle University)

8-16 Small States, Governance and Institutions

Small States in International Affairs

10 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Matilda Broman (Lund University)
- Paper 1: Reconciling national and European Union's international interests: the cases of Finland and Portugal
Laura Ferreira-Pereira (University of Minho) and Alena Vysotskaya (Friedrich-Alexander-Universität Erlangen-Nürnberg)
- Paper 2: Does size matter: Georgia and Russia in the WTO
Nino Gogoladze (OSCE Mission to Georgia)

8-17 Absent Sovereigns? Politics, Security and Democracy

Sovereignty and Agency

N PLANA

- Chair: Chris Bickerton (University of Oxford)

- Paper 1: Inside-out: perspectives on sovereignty from states that both are and are yet to be Tim Montgomery (University of Sheffield)
- Paper 2: Fading sovereignty as a security problem
Ondrej Ditrych (Institute of International Relations, Praha)
- Paper 3: Non-state entities, sovereignty and democracy
Oisin Tansey (University of Oxford)
- Discussant: Chris Bickerton (University of Oxford)

8-18 State capacity: case studies

The role of state capacity for development and peace

E PLANA

- Chair: Margit Bussmann (University of Konstanz)
- Paper 1: Decline in ethnic polarization in Macedonia 2003 - 2005?
Kristen Ringdal, Albert Simkus and Ola Listhaug (NTNU)
- Paper 2: The Palestinian Authority's process of institutionalization and its capability of providing public goods and assuring order within its territorial jurisdiction
Liana Lopes (Pontificia Universidade Catolica de Minas Gerais)
- Paper 3: Between the legacy of a centralised past and the promises of a federal present: is there a future for democratic decentralisation in Ethiopia?
Lessons learnt from the education sector
Emanuele Fantini (Universita di Torino)
- Paper 4: Identity polarization and conflict: state building in Cote d'Ivoire and Ghana
Ragnhild Nordås (CSCW/PRIO):
- Discussant: Lena Schaffer (ETH Zürich)

8-19 China and counter-hegemonic Challenges to IR

The contribution of Regional and Area Studies to IR Theory

II ROSINE

- Chair: Dirk Nabers (GIGA)
- Paper 1: Asian perspectives on the European experience
Ralph Pettman (University of Melbourne)
- Paper 2: In search of Chinese IR theory
Nele Noesselt (University of Vienna)
- Paper 3: The institutional and normative structure of East Asia's regional security order
Pablo Pareja (Universitat Pompeu Fabra)
- Discussant: Liselotte Odgaard (University of Aarhus)

8-20 International Law

The English School in International Relations

III ROSINE

- Chair: Ole Jacob Sending (Norwegian Institute of International Affairs)
- Paper 1: At the crossroads – Justus Lipsius and the early-odern development of international law
Halvard Leira (Norwegian Institute of International Affairs)
- Paper 2: Canon law, dynasticism, and international law: sources of order in the sixteenth century
Daniel Green (University of Delaware)
- Paper 3: Order, security and liberty: the rise of the international in the thought of Grotius, Pufendorf and Vattel
Richard Devetak (University of Queensland)
- Discussant: Randall Lesaffer (Tilburg University)

8-21 Conflicts in the Middle East

The Place of the Middle East in International Relations: Making Sense of Global Interconnection and Local Dynamics in Middle East Politics

G PLANA

- Chair: Lutz Krebs (ETH Zurich)
- Paper 1: National self-esteem, facework, and strategic choices: a symbolic interactionist view of Israeli decision-making in the 2006 Lebanon war
Ben D. Mor (University of Haifa)
- Paper 2: Casting for ‘Pariahs’: United States, Iran, and the quest for enmity
Hussein Banai (Brown University)
- Paper 3: Trust, social cohesion and violence in the Middle East
Lutz Krebs (ETH Zurich)
- Paper 4: Analysing (de)securitisations: problems and prospects for Israeli-Palestinian reconciliation
Bezen Coskun (Loughborough University)
- Discussant: Nils B. Weidmann (ETH Zurich)

8-22 Protection of Human Rights, Humanitarian Aid and the Role of Media

The UN is the globalized international system

3 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Wolf Dieter Eberwein (Political Institute, Grenoble)
- Paper 1: UN and human rights
Ihor Yaselsky (University of Kiev)
- Paper 2: Power and norms - the UN reform of the humanitarian system
Wolf-Dieter Eberwein (Political Institute, Grenoble)
- Paper 3: Toward a human security regime?
Ronald Hatto (Institute of Political Studies, Paris)
- Paper 4: The role of the media within the United Nations reform
Omar Hernández (Andres Bello Catholic University – Guayana, Venezuela)
- Discussant: Klara Kaderabkova (University of Economics, Prague)

8-23 The Historical Sociology of Empire

Historical Sociology

H PLANA

- Chair: Daniel Nexon (Georgetown)
Paper 1: Why empire? Why not? American exceptionalism and world history
Michael Cox (LSE)
Paper 2: Peoples, territories and empires: the place of frontiers in imperial histories
Alejandro Colas (Birkbeck)
Paper 3: The demise of empires and the rise of Islamism
Mehdi Mozaffari (Aarhus)
Paper 4: Does imperialism need imperialists?
Gonzalo Pozo (UCL)
Discussant: Daniel Nexon (Georgetown)

8-24 The ‘Inside/Outside’ to Historical Sociology: Nation, State and Territoriality

Historical Sociology

P PLANA

- Chair: Tarak Barkawi (University of Cambridge) Paper 1: ‘Imagined histories’: reflections on the problem of nationalism and historiography for an international Historical Sociology
Clemens Hoffman (University of Sussex)
Paper 2: Humanity, inside and out: mapping historical and territorial differences in the discursive evolution of IR
Douglas Bulloch (LSE)
Paper 3: Polity, space and power: how polities make space make polities Lars Bo Kaspersen (Copenhagen) and Jeppe Strandsbjerg (University of Sussex)
Discussant: Tarak Barkawi (University of Cambridge)

8-25 Foreign Policy Analysis

Independent Panels and Programme Chairs’ Roundtables

M PLANA

- Chair: Morten Bøås (Fafø – Institute for Applied International Studies)
Paper 1: Quadrangular peacekeeping: UN-EU-NATO co-operation in peacekeeping operations
Kristin M. Haugevik (Norwegian Institute for Foreign Affairs)
Paper 2: The evolution of nuclear free New Zealand
Amy L. Catalinac (Harvard University)
Paper 3: China and India: the unpredictable countries
Claudia Astarita (University of Hong Kong)
Paper 4: North Korea: shaping relations with neighbours through stronger bargaining possibilities
Ramon Pacheco Pardo (London School of Economics)

Paper 5: Effective multilateralism on the ground: EU-UN co-operation in the Democratic Republic of Congo
Claudia Morsut (University of Stavanger)
Discussant: Torbjørn Knutsen (NTNU)

SESSION 9: SATURDAY, 15 SEPTEMBER 2007, 11.00 – 12.45

9-1 Pursuing International Relations in the 21st Century

Approaches to International Relations in an Age of Terror: Places, Spaces and Risks

3 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Mehmet Tezcan (Vrije Universiteit Brussel)
- Paper 1: Social science and political practice: pragmatic systems theory for political practitioners in international relations
Jan S. Lachenmayer (SC Group, Berlin)
- Paper 2: Intrinsic value in international pragmatism: Trojan horse or saviour?
Michal Kořan (Institute of International Relations, Prague)
- Discussant: Mehmet Tezcan (Vrije Universiteit Brussel)

9-2 Institutions and Global Governance

Central Concepts in IR: a meta-theoretical conversation

IV ROSINE

- Chair: Stefano Guzzini (Danish Institute of International Studies)
- Paper 1: Risk uncertainty and the limits of institutional design
Oliver Kessler (University of Bielefeld)
- Paper 2: Meta-governance: a critical realist re-articulation of the social ontology of global governance research
Matti Jutila (University of Helsinki and Tampere Peace Research Institute)
- Paper 3: Humanitarian intervention and the Darfur tragedy
Nizar Messari (Pontifical Catholic University of Rio de Janeiro)
- Paper 4: On the constitutive role of knowledge in international cooperation
Thomas Teichler (European University Institute)
- Discussant: Stefano Guzzini (Danish Institute of International Studies)

9-3 Cancelled.

9-4 Governing through insecurities in the EU

Critical Approaches to Security in Europe

B PLANA

- Chair: Stephan Davidshofer (Sciences-Po, Paris)
- Paper 1: Reading the European security strategy through gender
Maria Stern (Swedish Institute of International Affairs)
- Paper 2: From securitization to abjection: advanced liberalism and the constitution of the EU as an area of freedom, security and justice
Rens van Munster (University of Southern Denmark)
- Paper 3: Managing borders, governing neighbours. Insecurities, practices of exception and the government of the EU's neighbourhood
Julien Jeandesboz (Science Pro Paris)
- Discussant: Stephan Davidshofer (Sciences-Po, Paris)

9-5 Changing Metaphors in Changing Politics

Cultural Plurality in IR Theory and IR Practice

I ROSINE

- Chair: Petr Drulák (Institute of International Relations, Prague)
- Paper 1: Creative metaphors and creative politics: metaphors of the Velvet Divorce
Petr Drulák (Institute of International Relations, Prague)
- Paper 2: Metaphors and power: reinventing the grammar of Russian trans-border regionalis
Andrey Makarychev (Nizhny Novgorod Linguistic University)
- Paper 3: From paradise to Brand: Liechtenstein's metaphorical struggle with globalisation
Rainer Hülse (Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität München)
- Paper 3: Bulgarian and Romanian journeys: metaphor in European accession discourses
Alina Curticeanu (University of Tampere)
- Paper 4: In search for democracy: a hegemonic interpretation of the Russian political development and its implications for international relations
Philipp Piero Maria Casula (FU Berlin)
- Discussant: Vassil Anastassov (Fatih University)

9-6 State Behavior & Compliance with Supranational Law

Democratic Legitimacy Upheld? On the Politicisation of the Law and the Legalisation of International Politics

4 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Edward S. Cohen (Westminster College)
- Paper 1: The judicialization of international dispute settlement: its effects on state behavior
Aletta Mondré, Gerald Neubauer, Achim Helmedach, Bernhard Zangl (University of Bremen)
- Paper 2: The implementation of European environmental law. analyzing the interplay of culture, capacity, and power
Tanja A Börzel, Meike Dudziak, Tobias Hofmann, Diana Panke and Carina Sprungk (FU Berlin)
- Paper 3: The limits of consequentialism: ICTY conditionality and (non) compliance in post-Milosevic Serbia
Nikolas Rajkovic (European University Institute)
- Paper 4: Different worlds, different remedies? Drawing lessons from differential modes of compliance with EU policies
Gerda Falkner (Institute of Advanced Studies Vienna)
- Discussant: Antonio Franceschet (University of Calgary)

9-7 Global Governance as multilevel & multilateral forms of governance

Global governance, a critical encounter: depolitisation/repolitisation in theory and practice

1 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Elisabeth De Zutter, Maastricht University
- Paper 1: Complex multilateralism and the World Trade Organisation: the future of global governance?
Dean Coldicott (University of Melbourne)
- Paper 2: Global governance as multi-level process
Christine Brachthaeuser
- Paper 3: EU governance after Lisbon: the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (MiFID) -- policy implications and the democratic deficit in financial integration
Or Raviv
- Discussant: Elisabeth De Zutter, Maastricht University

9-8 The HIV/AIDS Pandemic: Interfaces between disease, security, and globalization

Global Health Challenges in/for International Relations

8 GIOLITTI

- Chair: David MacLean (Simon Fraser University)
- Paper 1: Global HIV/AIDS policies and challenges to global HIV/AIDS actors
Siri Hellevik (Norwegian Institute for Urban and Regional research)
- Paper 2: HIV/AIDS challenge: the international political elite response
Alexey Gorlinsky (Saint-Petersburg State University)
- Paper 3: The relationship between the AIDS pandemic and state fragility
Pieter Fourie (University of Johannesburg)
- Paper 4: Of subalternity and Gologotha: the metaphor of AIDS and human security in Africa
Obijiofor Aginam (Carleton University)
- Discussant: Sherri Brown (Simon Fraser University)

9-9 Internationalisation of social services and EU

Governing the service economy: International standards from a political economy perspective

5 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Andreas Nölke (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam)
- Paper 1: The Service Directive and the EU's social question
Charlie Dannreuther (Leeds University)
- Paper 2: How to govern transnational pension provision? The struggle over European standards for corporate pension funds
Christian Moellmann (University of Bremen)
- Paper 3: Tracing the roots of public policy changes in the UK:
Phoebe Moore (University of Lincoln) and Marisa Lincoln (University of Edinburgh)

- Paper 4: The role of services in innovation and technology transfer in the water sector
Silke Beck and Lena Partzsch (UFZ-Centre for Environmental Research Leipzig)
- Discussant: Barbara Dickhaus (Universität Kassel)

9-10 Trade, Integration, and Development

IPE, Developing Countries, and Development

9 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Morten Bøås (Fao – Institute for Applied International Studies)
- Paper 1: Development strategies and subsidies - an appraisal of S&D treatment on subsidies in Doha negotiations
Po-Kuan Wu (Taiwan WTO Centre, CIER) and Tsai-chia Chen (LungHua University of Science and Technology)
- Paper 2: Turkish development strategy and the European Union: discourses and strategies of the trade unions on agriculture and textile sectors in Turkey on development
Elif Uzgoren and Deniz Aksin (Middle East Technical University)
- Paper 3: A Gramscian reading of Romania's membership into the European Union
Sait Aksit (Middle East Technical University)
- Paper 4: Shifting the frontiers of intellectual sovereignty: constructing sustainable development and governance in the Barents Region
Jessica Shadian (Barents Institute)
- Paper 5: Governing diaspora: exploring state power beyond sovereignty
Simona Rentea and Elena Barabantseva (University of Manchester)
- Discussant: Helge Hveem (University of Oslo)

9-11 Roundtable: Extending Peace and Extending Peace Research

Liberalism and Peace

A PLANA

- Chair: Wolfgang Wagner (Peace Research Institute Frankfurt)
- Participants:
Harald Müller (Peace Research Institute Frankfurt)
Nils Petter Gleditsch (Peace Research Institute Oslo)
Erik Gartzke (Columbia University)

9-12 The Imperative of Historical Praxis for IR Theory – Part II

Pragmatism and International Relations

7 GIOLITTI

- Chair: Yale Ferguson (Rutgers University)
- Paper 1: Historical analysis, methodology and the development of IR theory in the English School
Richard Little (University of Bristol)

- Paper 2: Languages of empire in early modern political theory: from Machiavelli's Roman paradigm to the modern 'Empire of Commerce'
Diego Panizza (University of Padova)
- Paper 3: National identity, insurgency, and liberal universalism: William Wordsworth as a foil to Hegelian understandings
Jennifer Sterling-Folker (University of Connecticut) and Brian Folker (Central Connecticut State University)
- Discussant: Raymond Hopkins (Swarthmore College)

9-13 Christianity (Pope/Orthodoxy)

Religion, soft power and international relations

L PLANA

- Chair: Giorgio Shani (Ritsumeikan University)
- Paper 1: The role of the religious actors in achieving the utopia of alliance of civilizations: Pope's visit to Turkey
Asli Deniz Helvacioğlu (Bogazici University)
- Paper 2: The soft power of the Ecumenical Patriarchate
Prodromos Yannas (TEI of Western Macedonia)
- Discussant: Giorgio Shani (Ritsumeikan University)

9-14 Securitization and the Other: Theorising Immigration and Asylum Policies

Security, Politics, Critique

C PLANA

- Chair: Lene Hansen (University of Copenhagen)
- Paper 1: The securitization of irregular migration in the European Union: revisiting the Copenhagen School's framework
Sarah Leonard (University of Salford)
- Paper 2: Bio-politics, security and the production of illegal immigration in the EU
Markus Mervola (University of Tampere)
- Paper 3: The securitisation of others: fear, terror, identity
Uzzi Ohana (LSE)
- Discussant: Lene Hansen (University of Copenhagen)

9-15 Cancelled

9-16 Sovereignty in Intellectual History

Sovereignty and Agency

N PLANA

- Chair: Philip Cunliffe (King's College London)
- Paper 1: Rebuilding of failed states
Peter Rade (Corvinus University Budapest)
- Paper 2: The concept of sovereignty in Grotius

- Paper 3: Barton Edgerton (LSE)
Roman property law, representation, and the invention of the nation-state: a constructive criticism of a constructivist case
Ben Holland (LSE)
- Discussant: Philip Cunliffe

9-17 Territory and state capacity

The role of state capacity for development and peace

E PLANA

- Chair: Scott Gates (Centre for the Study of Civil War)
- Paper 1: Geography, strategic ambition, and civil war duration
Halvard Buhaug, Scott Gates and Päivi Lujala (NTNU / CSCW, PRIO)
- Paper 2: Wealth sharing and post-conflict stability
Helga Binningsbø (NTNU / CSCW, PRIO) and Siri Camilla Aas Rustad (PRIO)
- Paper 3: Communal violence
Ole Magnus Theisen & Kristian Bjarnø Brandsegg (NTNU / CSCW, PRIO)
- Discussant: Lars-Erik Cederman (ETH Zürich)

9-18 Constructivist Identity and Foreign Policy Analysis

The contribution of Regional and Area Studies to IR Theory

II ROSINE

- Chair: Julie Gilson (University of Birmingham)
- Paper 1: National identity and foreign policy: a case study of Japan's policy vis-à-vis Russia
Alexander Bukh (London School of Economics)
- Paper 2: Regionalist promises in state social identity construction: the rhetorics of a single economic space
Mikhail Molchanov (St. Thomas University)
- Paper 3: A bureaucratic politics model of China's decisions in the Taiwan Strait crises: from individual supremacy to institutionalized decision-making Enyu Zhang (Seattle University) and Yitan Li (University of Southern California)
- Discussant: Dirk Nabers (GIGA)

9-19 Sovereignty, International Order and International Society

The English School Approach to International Relations

III ROSINE

- Chair: Daniel Green (University of Delaware)
- Paper 1: Huguenots, humanitarianism and international society
Andrea Paras (University of Toronto)
- Paper 2: International order and the emergence of sovereign practices
Benjamin de Carvalho (Norwegian Institute of International Affairs)

- Paper 3: Neomedievalism: an interdisciplinary critique
Gavin Mount (Australian Defence Force Academy, University of New South Wales)
- Paper 4: The institutionalization and ritualization of diplomacy
Christer Jönsson and Martin Hall (Lund University)
- Discussant: Daniel Green (University of Delaware)

9-20 Middle East Political Dynamics

The Place of the Middle East in International Relations: Making Sense of Global Interconnection and Local Dynamics in Middle East Politics

G PLANA

- Chair: Paolo Giaccaria (Università di Torino)
- Paper 1: Imaginative rescaling: the making of Mediterranean scale
Paolo Giaccaria (Università di Torino)
- Paper 2: Swimming against the tide: explaining Middle East resistance to the wave of globalization
Bryan Daves (Yeshiva University New York)
- Paper 3: Unwelcome involvement? The domestic dynamics of Turkish foreign policy in the Middle East
Muge Kinacioglu (London School of Economics) and Emel Oktay (Clingendael Institute)
- Paper 4: Turkey's role in security issues in the Middle East and Central Asia: a comparative analysis
Aigerim Shilibekova (Eurasian National University Kazakhstan)
- Discussant: Irene Bono (Università di Torino)

9-21 cancelled – papers moved to panel 9-10.

9-22 Competitors of the West

Towards a Post-Western West

H PLANA

- Chair: Hannes Stephan (Keele University)
- Paper 1: Monopoly broken – again? The emergence of China's alternative soft power
Barbara Onnis (Università di Cagliari)
- Paper 2: Change and continuity: the need of historical practices in IR research
Helle Palu (University of Tampere)
- Discussant: Hannes Stephan (Keele University)

9-23 The IPE Dimension of Historical Sociology

Historical Sociology

F PLANA

- Chair: Roland Dannreuther (University of Edinburgh)

- Paper 1: Why Political Economy needs Historical Sociology
Leonard Seabrooke (Copenhagen Business School)
- Paper 2: The historical sociology of intercultural financial orders
Andre Broom (ANU)
- Paper 3: State intervention and the origins of speculative finance in nineteenth century Britain
Samuel Knafo (University of Sussex)
- Discussant: Roland Dannreuther (University of Edinburgh)

9-24 Mafias, Governance, and the Management of Violence

Violence beyond the State

M PLANA

- Chair: Ted Hopf (Harvard University)
- Paper 1: Mafia-type organizations: rooting and expansion in southern Italy
Stefano Becucci (University of Florence)
- Paper 2: Can the mafia govern? a conceptual analysis
Markus Lederer (Universität Potsdam)
- Paper 3: “Global violence”: an experience of research network and web-archive of study resources of violence
Cristian Collina, Carolina Sassi and Stefano Ruzza (University of Turin)
- Discussant: Alfio Mastropaolo (University of Turin)

9-25 Security, nationalism and community relation

Critical Approaches to Security in Europe

P PLANA

- Chair: Xavier Guillaume
- Paper 1: The war on civil Islam and its impact on international relations
Reza Simbar (Guilan University)
- Paper 2: No one is illegal: contending political communities, contending securities
Vicky Squire (University of Birmingham)
- Paper 3: Politics of becoming European as memory politics: integrating subaltern East European pasts to the collective memory of Europe
Maria Mälksoo (University of Cambridge)
- Paper 4: Competing Post-Yugoslav identities and the politics of belonging: facing ‘social security dilemma’ in the Balkans
Edgar Dobos (Corvinus University of Budapest)
- Discussant: Xavier Guillaume